

At Least 26 Killed In Crash Of Dutch Plane At Bari, Italy

Arrest Of Prague Prelate Expected Hourly By Vatican

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

PRAGUE (AP)—Roman Catholic priests said today that Czechoslovakia's Communist government apparently has succeeded in clamping a wall of silence around Archbishop Beran.

The archbishop is in semi-captivity now in his palace in Prague. The informants said all their contacts with him had been broken off since last week-end.

Vatican informants and informed diplomatic sources here expressed the belief Archbishop Beran might be formally arrested at any time. The Communist regime has accused him of anti-state agitation. He has resisted the Communists' campaign to bring the church under state control and to crush the influence of the Vatican in Czechoslovakia.

The diplomatic sources said they thought it was only a question of time until the Communists believed they had built up their case against the archbishop sufficiently to bring it to a showdown.

According to the priests here, the Communists seem now to have sealed any loopholes through which the archbishop might smuggle another pastoral letter of defiance from his police-guarded palace.

Last week-end Archbishop Beran emerged from the palace and made two sermons in which he accused the government of trying to split the church and crush religious freedom. He also was able recently to smuggle out to his priests a pastoral letter in which he pointed out there would be "no compromise" with the Communists in the church-state dispute.

MORE GUARDS

The priests said they expected no more such letters, since the police guard inside the palace had been increased.

The Communist-sponsored Catholic Action Society leadership defied Vatican excommunication Wednesday night and accused Archbishop Beran and his followers of anti-state activity.

A similar charge was leveled against Archbishop Beran Tuesday night by Premier Zapotocky, who warned the law would take its course.

At Vatican City an unofficial Vatican informant said today the arrest of Archbishop Beran was expected at any time.

Report 2 Bishops Tortured

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A Vatican source said today that two leading bishops of the outlawed Uniate Church in Romania have been put to torture by Communist officials in an effort to break their allegiance to the Pope.

The Uniate Church is a Romanian branch of the Roman Catholic faith. It was dissolved by the Romanian government last December.

The source said the Communist regime in Romania is bent on "wiping out the two branches of the Roman Catholic faith there, from the ground up, and with the use of every means of terror, oppression and pressure."

Auto Union Scores Proposal By Ford To 'Freeze' Wages

DETROIT (AP)—Ford's wage-freeze proposal was denounced today by the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) as "counterfeit security."

The union's formal rejection, delivered by president Walter Reuther, also termed Ford's proposal a "flight into fantasy" and "upside-down economics."

Last week Ford asked the U.A.W. to withdraw for 18 months all its economic demands, including a wage increase and $100 monthly pensions. Wages meanwhile would be pegged to the cost of living.

The union's rejection came as negotiations covering 106,000 Ford production workers were stepped up.

Today was to have been an open date in the negotiations, but a meeting was scheduled nonetheless. Ford and the union are working against a July 25 expiration date in their present contract.

16 Planes Share In Hunt For Uranium In Manitoba

KENORA, Ont. (BUP)—Prospectors flocked to an area a few miles inside the Manitoba boundary today on the trail of uranium found in the Kenora mining division.

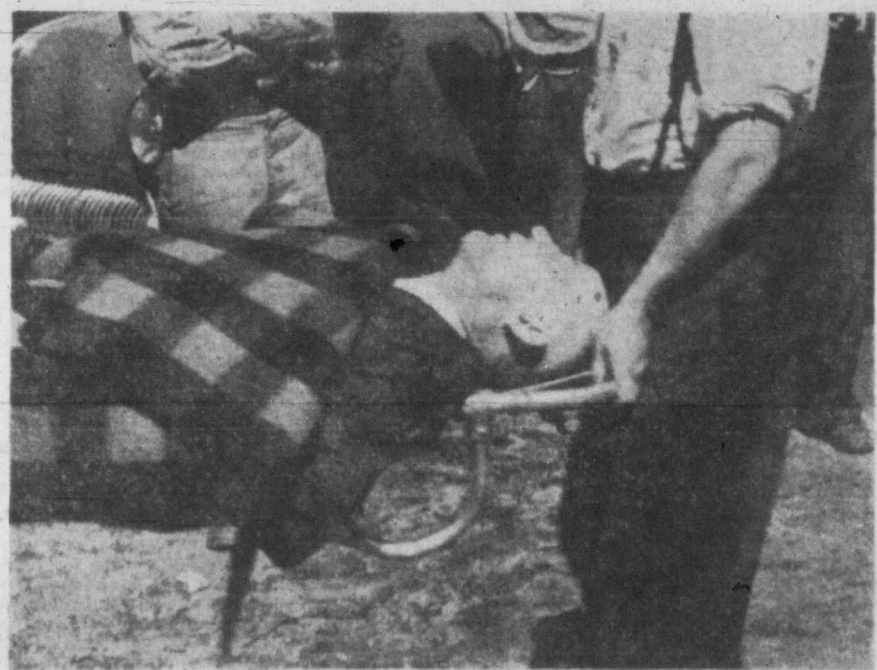

Sample ore taken from six or seven properties staked by prospector Sam Cranston contained uranium, an official Ottawa report said. Percentage of the content was not revealed.

Prospectors were using at least 16 planes in their hunt for the mineral vital to the manufacture of the atomic bomb. They concentrated in the area between Reddit, 129 miles east of Winnipeg, and Minaki. Another find was at Bee Lake, east of here.

New Berlin Freight Plan Meets Rejection

BERLIN (AP)—The British military government today ordered German police in its sector to prevent non-Communist railway strikers from operating an "emergency" service without permission of the Russian-controlled management.

This was only one of a series of snags struck by the offer of leaders of the 14,000 strikers to restore freight service between Berlin and western Germany without calling off their strike.

The non-Communist union, U.G.O., announced Wednesday it was willing to handle freight for West Berlin, but would continue the strike which started five weeks ago on the elevated railway system. The system normally carries 1,000,000 passengers a day.

British officials promptly denounced the plan as "totally impracticable," since it proposed to continue blocking Soviet zone freight trains.

The British attitude reflected a U.S. official view that the U.G.O. could not hope to operate a portion of the railroad unless the Reichsbahn (the railway management) agreed. U.G.O. leaders, who had planned to go ahead today with repairs necessary for resuming service, said they had not decided what their next move would be.

Predicts Heavy 1949 Building

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Allan C. Ross, president of the Canadian Construction Association, today predicted a high volume of construction business this year with a leveling-off of building costs.

Material costs were steady and builders' supplies easier to procure, he said in an address to the Windsor Builders' and Contractors' Exchange. Resulting savings were offset somewhat by "the insistence of labor in many areas on further wage increases."

Value of building permits issued in Canada during the first three months of 1949 was 41 per cent greater than during the same period last year and "housing completions are up 54 per cent and housing starts up 26 per cent. The construction employment index is up 8.3 per cent."

While construction activity in the United States had decreased, Canadian conditions remained stable. But he said Canadian builders should continue "every effort to maintain sound labor relations."

Soviet Astronomer Says Those In U.S. Capitalist Slaves

OTTAWA (CP)—The cold war has spread to astronomy, North American astronomers were told here.

A Russian astronomer has claimed that some theories held by American astronomers are signs of subservience to capitalism. Dr. Otto Struve, retiring president of the American Astronomical Society, told a dinner meeting Wednesday night at the end of the society's four-day 81st annual meeting.

Dr. Struve said the charges were ridiculous. He is vice-president of the International Astronomical Union.

They were made in a recent book by Professor Vorontzoff-Velyaminov of Moscow, a prominent Soviet astronomer.

(Similar attacks on western biology, music, art and literature have been made by the Soviet Union.)

The book said American astronomers who held the theory of the eventual explosion of the sun and the destruction of the solar system were "concerned" with creating a sense of utter pessimism among the American people.

If people accepted this theory, the book said, they would lose the desire to improve society and this would serve U.S. capitalism.

The society elected Dr. Alfred H. Joy of the Mount Wilson Observatory, Pasadena, Calif., to succeed Dr. Struve.

Dr. Joy said the society would lose the desire to improve society and this would serve U.S. capitalism.

Thousands Witness Flaming Airliner Plunge Into Water

From A.P. and U.P. Dispatches

A four-engined Royal Dutch Airlines (K.L.M.) plane today crashed in the sea off the southeastern Italian port of Bari and estimates from various sources set the death toll between 26 and 35.

One Associated Press report said 35 had been killed, while Reuter said the British consul at Bari said the death toll was 32. However, a report from K.L.M. headquarters in The Hague said there were only 16 passengers and 12 crew members aboard the plane.

Harbor boats darting through the choppy waters off the main pier of Bari, which is in the heel of the Italian boot, have so far recovered 24 mutilated and charred bodies, thrown clear when the flaming aircraft hit the water and sank to the bottom, 40 feet below.

Apparently No Survivors

Sixteen of the bodies recovered were men, five were those of women and three of children. Apparently there were no survivors. Recovery of other bodies trapped in the wreckage was hindered by the rough sea.

K.L.M. spokesman at The Hague, said the pilot was J. C. Plesman, a son of K.L.M.'s president, Dr. A. Plesman.

The big airliner, nearing its destination after a flight from the other side of the world, inexplicably burst into flames high over the harbor.

Witnesses said it fell apart, with wings and tail section breaking away and leaving the fuselage age to drop as a dead weight. Documents recovered from the water showed the big plane had left the Dutch East Indies last Tuesday and last touched the ground at Athens, whence it took off this morning.

An Associated Press report said the K.L.M. office in Rome was advised by the Netherlands vice-consul in Bari that the ship apparently was bound in from Batavia to Amsterdam. Persons aboard were said to include Americans, Dutch, Greeks and Turks.

The Air Ministry in Rome announced that a plane had crashed, but had no details.

Few Of Victims Identified

One of the dead was reported to be a British consular officer named Dukes on his way back from the Dutch East Indies.

The United Press said the spectacular crash occurred in full view of thousands of persons on the waterfront promenade, which stretches for miles along the coast and is a busy thoroughfare.

Unnamed officials reported they had determined that two of the women aboard were stewardesses, and that one man's name was Van Hasselt. Otherwise the makeup of the casualty list was unknown in the first hours after the crash.

Bari civic and military officials, along with thousands of curious bystanders, lined the promenade along the waterfront as the bodies were taken off boats.

In midafternoon the bodies were taken to the local mausoleum, where officials continued their effort to establish identities.

It was the second big air crash in Italy this year. On May 4 a plane crashed at Turin, killing 31 persons, of whom 17 were members of the championship Turin football squad.

Twenty-one Swedish military personnel died in March, 1948, when a Swedish plane hit a mountain at Salerno. On Feb. 16, 1947, 17 persons were killed when an Italian military plane fell into the sea at Terracina, south of Anzio.

Sydney Blackout Prevents Parley To Avert Own Cause

SYDNEY (CP)—The New South Wales power blackout, ordered to meet the threat of a country-wide miners' strike, had this queer slant today: It stopped a conference aimed at avoiding the coal walkout.

Representatives of the mine owners and Communist-led miners' union met in Sydney, Australia's biggest city, where effects of the electricity ban have been most felt.

Idris Williams, Communist president of the Miners' Federation, presented the union's case. Then, before there was any discussion, evening left the delegates in semi-darkness.

The New South Wales government was asked to exempt the meeting from the ban on public lighting. It refused.

"If it isn't good enough for the government to give us electric light for such an important conference, then it's not good enough for us to work by lamplight," said the delegates.

The conference, on which all Australia has been pinning its hopes for a settlement of the mine-union dispute, broke up until tomorrow.

Meantime the rest of Sydney goes cold and in darkness; and the government threatened still more severe restrictions on the use of electricity and gas.

Police Say Japan Typhoon Official Death Toll Now 143

TOKYO (AP)—Rural police today set at 143 persons the official death toll in Tuesday's devastating typhoon in southern Japan.

Still missing were 206, all Japanese. Some 840 previously reported missing were found. Unreported are 93 passengers and crew of the ferry Aoba Maru which foundered in the inland sea.

Chinese 'Regret' Attack On British Ship

Probably 32 Die As Dutch Plane Crashes

BARI (UP)—A Dutch air liner homebound from the Far East burst into flames, fell apart and plunged into Bari harbor today, killing at least 24 and probably 32 passengers and crewmen.

Rescue boats darting through the wave-lashed waters recovered the mutilated and charred bodies of 16 men, five women and three children. They were thrown clear when the fuselage of the four-engine transport hit the water with terrific impact.

The Royal Dutch Airline K.L.M. reported that 27 persons were believed aboard the plane flying from the Netherlands East Indies to Amsterdam. All save the 24 whose bodies were recovered apparently were trapped in the battered fuselage which lay on the bottom in 125 feet of storm-tossed waters.

K.L.M. officials in Amsterdam said the plane was believed to be the liner Roermond, on a non-scheduled flight. The Roermond took a party of newspapermen, including Americans, to Indonesia last week for a month's inspection tour there.

NO SURVIVORS
All aboard the liner were killed, all responsible officials at the scene agreed, when it dropped into the harbor some 1,500 feet from the main pier here.

The first impression was that the cause of the crash probably never would be known. Thousands of persons on the waterfront saw the big ship belch smoke and flame, then plunge to disaster.

The crashed plane was a Lockheed Constellation. The Dutch line said it was piloted by Hans Plesman, son of a K.L.M. director, who flew the newsman to Indonesia last week. Officials of the line said they had no inkling as to the cause of the crash.

IDENTIFY BRITON
Bari authorities identified one of the passengers as F. G. Duckers, British Consul in the Dutch East Indies.

They said the three children whose bodies were recovered were all girls, and appeared to be about 12, three and two years old. Company officials said they understood four children altogether were among the passengers.

Harbor boats picked up 10 suitcases and the plane's log near the crash scene. They will be examined later in the presence of Lionel Webb, K.L.M. representative in Rome, who was flying here, and Giorgio Manara, honorary Dutch consul at Bari.

Some witnesses said the plane appeared to be in trouble when it appeared over the harbor, and seemed to be manoeuvring for a landing in the sea when a motor burst into flames.

Ballot Boxes Go Out For Monday Election

In preparation for voting Monday in the federal general election here, Sydney Child, returning officer for Victoria, today is swearing in his deputy returning officers and distributing ballot boxes. Above, W. Haley, right, 1727 Kings Road, who will man the polling station No. 9 at 644 Speed Avenue, takes the oath to act faithfully without "fear, favor or affection." He is taking the oath from Mr. Child, while Mrs. H. S. Howard, election secretary, looks on.

Firefighting crews on other coastal blazes have been substantially reduced as these fires have been brought further under control. The Lamb Lumber Company blaze on the Sechart Peninsula is still causing the most trouble. It burned over 170 acres last week and today is being mopped up by a crew of 25 men.

Eight men are still fighting the fire at Extension on the island and 12 men are still battling a blaze on Gambier Island.

In the interior of the province the worst blaze is at Penny, east of Prince George. Controlled for some time it is being fought by 25 men.

Silver Dollar Put In Circulation Across Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—A new coin went into circulation in Canada today, a shiny silver dollar, to commemorate Newfoundland's entry into Confederation.

It goes into circulation, the Finance Department today said in a statement, on the eve of the Founder's Day holiday in New Brunswick in memory of John Cabot, 15th century explorer who sighted the shores of North America in 1497 after a 53-day voyage from Bristol, England.

Some 300,000 pieces of the dollar, which goes on sale at local branches of chartered banks, have been struck by the Canadian Mint.

The new silver dollar has not arrived in Victoria, a check with the local banks revealed today, but officials stated they expected it would be in circulation here within the next few days.

One side of the coin bears the usual effigy of King George, while the other shows a three-masted ship, Cabot's Matthew, with the motto "Floreat Terra Nova" (May Newfoundland Flourish).

The last commemorative silver dollar in Canada, struck in 1939 on the occasion of the royal visit, ran to 1,250,000 pieces.

Fire Fighters Winning Hands Down Against Blazes In Province

B.C. Forest Service officials today reported they were winning the fight against forest fires in the province hands down with the aid of cooler weather.

The cool spell with some rain is to continue for the next two days, according to its weather experts.

Nevertheless seven new fires were reported in the Vancouver forest district today. They were five spot fires on the P.G.E., all of which were extinguished, an escaped camp fire near Oyster River which was controlled by a suppression crew, and a spot fire near Koksilah which has also been controlled.

Firefighting crews on other coastal blazes have been substantially reduced as these fires have been brought further under control. Manslaughter Verdict In Oak Bay Slaying

A coroner's jury today brought in a verdict of manslaughter against 75-year-old Francis Edward Smith, 2323 Dunlevy Street, who has been charged by Oak Bay police with the murder of his wife, Sarah Alice Smith, also aged 75.

Mrs. Smith was found strangled to death on her bed in their four-room frame bungalow last Tuesday, while her elderly husband was found with his wrists slashed and throat cut.

TAIPEN, Formosa (AP)—Maj. Gen. Wang Shu-ming, deputy commander of the Nationalist Chinese Air Force, said today the pilot who attacked the British freighter Anchises in the Whangpoo River Tuesday thought it was a Communist vessel.

In an interview, Wang said his reports indicated the Anchises was not flying the British flag at the time of the plane's attack.

(The captain of the vessel said after the attack that the flag was flying.)

Wang said he had received no report of a second attack on the Anchises.

British authorities reported the Anchises was attacked again Wednesday. One bomb fell near the ship and the attacking plane turned and strafed the freighter, they said.

Britain Makes New Protest

LONDON (AP)—Britain lodged a second protest today over Chinese Nationalist air attacks on the damaged British freighter Anchises, near Communist-held Shanghai.

The protest, presented to the Canton Foreign Office, said the Anchises, beached in the Whangpoo River after she had been damaged during the first Nationalist air attack, had been attacked twice since.

The Foreign Office spokesman said Britain had received an "expression of regret" from the Chinese government. The spokesman was unable to say whether the Chinese note covered only the first attack on the Anchises or all three of them.

The spokesman said Britain also had received from China an "invitation of closure" of Red-held ports, including Shanghai.

The spokesman declined to say whether this closure set by one Nationalist government for the night of June 25 to 26 constituted a blockade.

He noted, however, that the attacks on the Anchises were made before the date set by the Chinese note.

Defence Chief To Explain

CANTON (Reuter)—The Chinese Nationalist government in Canton has expressed regret over attacks near Shanghai on the British Ss. Anchises, a government spokesman said today.

Earlier, semi-official Chinese sources in Taiwan had claimed that the bombed 8,287-ton Blue Funnel vessel "neglected to hoist her flag."

Two other ships flying the U.S. flag were not bombed, they said. The air force announced the national defence ministry will issue a statement on the Anchises bombing shortly.

British-Argentine Pact Signed Friday

The sources said U.S. objections to the agreement had been overcome in principle and that U.S. officials now appeared to be approaching the issue with "greater understanding."

Property Claimed By I.W.A. Seized

PORT ALBERT (CP)—Property alleged to belong to the I.W.A. was seized in a sheriff's raid Wednesday on the Eric Graf hall.

The hall is operated by the Rival Woodworkers' Industrial Union. Legal action on the ownership of the hall is still pending, it was reported.

The New South Wales government was asked to exempt the meeting from the ban on public lighting. It refused.

"It isn't good enough for the government to give us electric light for such an important conference, then it's not good enough for us to work by lamplight," said the delegates.

The conference, on which all Australia has been pinning its hopes for a settlement of the mine-union dispute, broke up until tomorrow.

French Canadians Acclaim St. Laurent; Drew Speaks

By Canadian Press Staff Writer Political leaders are rolling out their final election appeals as the June 27 voting date draws near.

The campaign spotlight centred
Wednesday night on Quebec province, with both Prime Minister St. Laurent and Progressive Conservative leader George Drew addressing meetings in the French-speaking province. C.C.F. leader M. J. Coldwell is campaigning in his home Saskatchewan riding of Rosetown-Biggar.

Mr. St. Laurent, speaking in Three Rivers and neighboring points, called on Liberals to vote for official party candidates rather than those running under an Independent-Liberal label. He did not want to be "an autocrat," but "one who can compromise or compromise our victory."

Although Three Rivers is the home town of Quebec's Premier Duplessis, Mr. St. Laurent did not mention him by name, the butt of most of his remarks being Jules Biron, an Independent Liberal candidate who professes to support him.

A few hours later, across the St. Lawrence River in Nicolet-Yamaska constituency, Mr. St.
Laurent returned to the same subject before hundreds of farmers and townsmen of that area who packed into a Roman Catholic seminary in the village of Nicolet.

He urged support of Maurice Boisvert, the lone Liberal candidate this time, and said the riding will soon have a second chance to ratify the Liberals' choice of himself as leader.

Outside the city hall among the hundreds of men and women who stood on the street and in a park were many placards. One said "Drew insulted us; avenge ourselves." Another said "St.
Laurent proves we are not a vanquished race" and another called the Prime Minister "Our avenger."

It was a day of alternate rain and sunshine and thousands of French-speaking Canadians saw and heard Mr. St. Laurent as he travelled by train.

STATEMENTS BY DREW

Mr. Drew, speaking part of the time in French, campaigned the Montreal district and promised that a government under his leadership would be faithful to the spirit and letter of the constitution.

"National sovereignty, provincial autonomy, the liberty and initiative of French-Canadians," he said, "will be fully preserved by the policies that my government will put into effect."

Mr. Coldwell, campaigning on the drought-harassed prairies, accused the Liberal administration of ignoring the need for crop insurance to protect prairie farmers from drought.

"In the face of disaster that drought can bring in western Canada," he said at Broerick, Sask., "the persistent inaction of the Liberal government in Ottawa comes close to criminal negligence."

MANNING SPEAKS

From Premier Manning of Alberta, in an address broadcast locally in Edmonton, came an appeal to Albertans to send to Parliament a "vigorous" group of Social Credit members who are "free to stand up in the House of Commons and publicly champion the rights and interests of the people of this province."

Says Future Generations Will Not Read Or Write

Literary mother and son are Mrs. Mabel Rose Stevenson and Dr.
Lionel Stevenson, head of the department of English at the University of Southern California, who are now in Victoria on a visit. Mrs.
Stevenson has had published a book of poems while her son is the author of several biographies.

Reading and writing may soon be crossed off the list of three R's, thinks Dr. Lionel Stevenson, head of the English department of the University of Southern California.

Interviewed this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Islay Mutter, 1009 Terrace Avenue, where he and his mother are spending part of their summer vacation, the doctor prophesied that few grandchildren of present-day youngsters will learn to read and write unless, of course, they want to make a business of it.

"I think it is true," he said,
"that in another two or three generations there will be a limited reading public. We are gradually going back to the ways of the Middle Ages when reading and writing was a profession."

Early stages of the recession are already apparent, the doctor said. Teachers everywhere, he said, are complaining that the students of today do not read or spell so well as their predecessors.

"The simple answer to it is that they don't need to," Dr.
Stevenson said.

"People are finding they can get their education and entertainment through the eye and ear without having to go to books. The only reading some young people do is when they are assigned study by their teachers."

The doctor did not criticize the trend. His attitude was that of a man facing the inevitable.

He said his own department at the University of Southern California was trying to reorganize to keep in line with the change rather than attempting to fight it.

The movies, Dr. Stevenson observed, are doing much in bringing the classic works of Shakespeare and Dickens back to the masses.

He found no serious argument with the way in which the works of these artists are adapted for the screen.

"Strict literary students have objected to changes made to original text, but I feel certain changes are necessary and advisable. The works of Shakespeare and Dickens have a quality in them that permits certain revision. That, in fact, is what makes them classics."

Pooley Apologizes For Using Strong Adjectives

Harry Pooley, former attorney-general for B.C., stepped into the election battle in a fighting mood Wednesday and promised to do all in his power to defeat Fisheries Minister R.
W. Mayhew, Liberal candidate for Victoria, at the polls on June 27.

Mr. Pooley, who was speaking in support of Gordon A.
Cameron, Progressive Conservative candidate in the Queen of Church Hall, at the close of his address apologized to the audience for having used a few strong adjectives during the course of his address.

"I couldn't help using them," he said, "because I'm sincere in what I say."

Mr. Pooley said what spurred him on to fight against Mr. May-hew was a letter which the Liberal candidate wrote to the electorate of Esquimalt. "When I read that he promised to do his best for the people of Esquimalt," he said, "I took that as an affront to the intelligence of the people."

"There is no other spot in Canada as Esquimalt which has been so neglected," said the speaker. "There are approximately 15,000 acres in this municipality with an assessed value of about $15,000,000. The federal government owns $10,000,000.

Stating that the majority of traffic over Esquimalt roads was composed of government vehicles, Mr. Pooley said the federal government was not paying anything for the upkeep of the roads. "We have to pay for their maintenance and upkeep," he said. "They don't pay anything."

GORDON CAMERON

Gordon Cameron in his address charged the Liberal Party with using 19th century political propaganda tactics in the election campaign.

He singled out the Liberal Party's claim that the family allowance would be stopped if a Progressive Conservative government was elected.

"This is untrue," he said. "Let me assure you that the parents of Canada under a Progressive Conservative administration with the additional benefits that are outlined in our party's platform will have benefits that the Liberal government will not give to them in addition to the payments they now receive."

He said the Conservative Party and its leader had at all times approved of financial aid for parents in Canada. He added that it was the pressure of the Progressive Conservative Convention last year that forced the Liberal government two months ago to increase the Family Al-nemis of war in the world today had been created solely by the Imperialist, dictatorial tactics of Soviet Russia and that he was convinced that the Atlantic Pact and the Marshall Plan saved the democracies from an aggressive attack.

W. W. Jones, commissioner, also addressed the meeting and spoke on veterans' affairs. T.
Haddfield was chairman.

WHY WAIT FOR DISASTER?

IT IS UNNECESSARY TO DELVE deeply into the controversy now being waged in Saanich over fire protection and water services to discern the basic problem faced by that municipality. The difficulty, so it seems to us, is that of trying to provide urban services for the urban section and of attempting to furnish adequate specialized rural services for the districts which are not densely populated. It is possible to do both—but not with the same tax dollar.

Authorities on fire-fighting recognize a clear distinction between the most effective equipment and techniques for handling outbreaks in regions in which buildings are close together and in districts where settlement is sparse. In the latter, particularly when water is scarce, tank wagons are an essential. They can, of course, be employed to check urban fires, but more efficient equipment is available for such work in localities equipped with hydrants.

It should not be necessary to detail the handicaps faced by a brigade required to furnish protection for a rural area. Lack of immediate phone service to sound alarms, remoteness from fire-fighting headquarters, second class roads, and water scarcity are all factors in the question. Such obstacles, however, do not exist, or exist to a far less extent, in the urban wards of Saanich. Hence the residents of such localities should expect urban coverage.

The entire issue could be infinitely simplified if the two problems were divided. This could be done by an arrangement that would bring into city jurisdiction the residential sections—providing for them city service—and by giving special attention to the purely rural side of fire-fighting.

By the same token, the entire Greater Victoria community could achieve a more highly satisfactory fire protection system if all urban centres were brought under metropolitan control. Each of the present separate municipal departments would benefit from the auxiliary, or stand-by, service afforded by stations in adjacent districts. Oak Bay, if it were required to rush all equipment to fight a blaze in the Uplands, for instance, could find comfort in the knowledge that the southern section of the municipality could depend on the city should another fire break out. The same principle applies to the other districts.

The dispute now proceeding in Saanich is, in the narrow sense, the business of residents of that municipality. From a broader point of view, however, it is correlated to the whole question of fire protection in this community. The issue is one to stir Greater Victoria action. Why wait until disaster furnishes cruel proof of the point?

WANTS NONE OF DREW

EARLY LAST WEEK THE EDMONTON Journal, one of Western Canada's most authoritative dailies which has supported the cause of the Conservative Party for many years, startled its readers and other observers from the Pacific to the Atlantic with an appeal to the people of Alberta to return the government of Rt. Hon. Louis St. Laurent on June 27. It is not our intention to labor the point; we merely record the fact because our contemporary's decision obviously was based on fundamentals and not on fancies. This is clearly revealed by one extract from its initial editorial declaration:

The Journal believes that the best interests of Alberta, of all the western provinces and of Canada as a whole, will be best served at this time by the return to power of the present government of Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent.

Some needs to be reminded that the next four or five years will be most important ones for Alberta, standing as it is on the threshold of tremendous mineral and industrial development.

Agriculture is still Alberta's primary industry. The grain and livestock producers of this province, as well as those of Saskatchewan and Manitoba, are vitally concerned in marketing arrangements—such as the wheat agreement with the United Kingdom which will be completed at the end of the next crop year, and the world wheat marketing pact, still to be approved. They are also vitally interested in marketing methods, especially the future of the Canadian wheat board and the legislation under which it is made responsible for marketing wheat, oats and barley.

Then, too, all Albertans, whether they pay income taxes directly or not, are affected by the "tax transfer" agreements, which will expire within three years. Unless they are renewed, on a basis equally advantageous to the province, direct taxation in Alberta is bound to be increased. Double taxation—two income tax forms to be made out, two income taxes to be paid—will be inevitable if the tax-transfer agreements are not renewed.

The foregoing, expressing as it does the sound conviction of an important newspaper, reflects—or so it would seem to us—the views of a substantial cross section of the people of Canada.

ON THE OTHER FOOT

THE WIDESPREAD, THOUGH improper, inclination to stigmatize a nation because of the sins of some of its members, lends a touch of incongruity to the protest by Western Germany's 11 chiefs-of-staff against Russia's refusal to give a satisfactory accounting of prisoners of war who were formerly members of Hitler's legions. Ethically, the ministers-president are correct in declaring the Soviet action in continuing the detention of German prisoners to be "contrary to right and humanity." Democratic countries hold no brief for the course pursued by Russia in this connection. But the phrase "contrary to right and humanity" has a familiar ring. Was it not in general use a few short years ago when people referred to the Nazi concentration camps and gas chambers?

FLEMING'S FISCAL FANCIES

MR. DONALD FLEMING, PROGRESSIVE Conservative member in the last parliament at Ottawa for the Eglinton division of Toronto, is reported to have given a good deal of prominence to the fact that three out of eight Canadians depend upon export trade for their general livelihood and for the maintenance of their high standard of living. None will quarrel with this argument. But when he said that "Ottawa has sat back with folded hands, and has done nothing toward the recapturing of British markets," he was obviously ignoring the history of the Canadian Tory Party in relation to the exchange of goods between this country and the United Kingdom.

So Mr. Fleming declared that, if elected to office next Monday, the Progressive Conservative Party under the leadership of Mr. George Drew, would "spare no efforts to recover U.K. Trade." Nor was this all; the man who represented Eglinton in the last House of Commons emphatically declared that "all obstructions to trade must be removed." That last sentence assuredly constitutes an insult to the intelligence of Canadian business men in particular and the people of Canada in general. For Mr. Fleming must know that soon after Sir Wilfrid Laurier granted the United Kingdom a tariff preference in 1897 "without strings," Sir Charles Tupper, one of the Fathers of Confederation, delivered a speech in Montreal in which he described in the gloomiest terms the fate awaiting the "infant industries" of Canada through the application of this Laurier policy.

None of those dire consequences materialized. As a matter of fact, the export and import business between this country and Great Britain grew enormously from year to year—as Mr. Fleming can discover for himself if he will consult the Canada Year Book's coldly-impartial statistics on this business. In other words, when he demands the removal of restrictions on trade he is not only preaching Liberal fiscal policy in operation, but also giving sanction to the Progressive Conservative Party to swallow itself in this regard.

NOT SOLVED YET

THE GOOD NEWS THAT THE CITY Council has given approval to the drafting of a by-law to permit construction of 100 houses under Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation auspices is offset by the refusal of Saanich to encourage a similar plan involving erection of 152 dwellings in that municipality. Admittedly, there may be certain technicalities to be overcome in arranging for the tax stabilization period entailed in contracts with the Crown company. It is nevertheless understandable that the organization should require the elimination of unpredictable charges in computing its financial commitments, and the fact remains that there is no other feasible program in view that would so quickly and economically meet the urgent housing shortage that still exists.

Against the slight loss that might be suffered by the city or municipality as a result of pegging taxes on the new properties at the 1949 level for several years would be the gain resulting from placing the proposed building sites in the immediately tax-productive category. In some cases, it might be years before private builders utilized many of the lots—and the civic coffers receive little revenue from unimproved land. But conscientious citizens will see even these considerations as secondary. The families of hundreds of men who did not quibble about "technicalities" when their country called them to arms are at present without adequate housing. Elected officials should examine their reasoning processes very carefully before condemning others to bring up their families in accommodation unworthy of good Canadians. Humanity is as much a requirement as accountability for those who serve the public.

GARDEN PESTS

IT IS DIFFICULT TO IMAGINE THE mental processes of anyone, whether juvenile or adult, who would wantonly destroy or damage one of the household gardens which are such a pleasant feature of this city. Police report two instances last week-end in which some irresponsible persons believed to be youths, wrecked the vegetable and fruit crops of two Victoria homes in an exhibition of stupid destruction. It is not the first time such actions have been recorded. Spring flower gardens have on occasion been the object of senseless attacks. There can be few petty crimes which are more annoying and disgusting to the public and to the home gardeners who are the direct victims. A stiff penalty of lasting impression would seem to be one necessary step in eradicating this type of garden pest.

It is predicted by an astronomer that the world will last 3,000,000,000 years. So don't give up hope of management and labor reaching a peaceful understanding.

Matter Of Fact

By JOSEPH ALSOP From Washington

CASE OF DR. OPPENHEIMER

IT IS GETTING to be very unprogressive to believe that the United States Bill of Rights means what it says. All the same, there are still some old-fashioned Americans who obstinately cling to this unenlightened belief. And these few reactionaries may be interested—they may even be aroused—by the case of Dr. Oppenheimer.

Frank E. Oppenheimer and his wife, Jaqueline, are the incidental casualties of the most recent of the House Un-American Activities Committee's clamorous headline hunts. Last week the committee disclosed that the Oppenheimers had briefly belonged to the Communist Party, when they were both young and foolish, in the time before the war.

IT DID NOT MATTER that both Oppenheimers had learned better, and had left the party eight years ago. It did not matter that Oppenheimer was emphatically not a party member when he was one of the physicists working in the Manhattan district project. It did not matter that Oppenheimer's temporary aberration had no slightest connection with his brother, the great physicist, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer. What mattered was just one thing. Frank Oppenheimer's position caused the committee's revelation to make the most wonderfully satisfying headlines.

No headlines were made, of course, by what followed. Yet it deserves to be recorded also that Oppenheimer has now lost his post as a professor of physics at the University of Minnesota; that his chances of continuing a fruitful teaching career have been sharply reduced; and that all his once-bright prospects are now overcast.

TO BE SURE, the new casualty is just the sort of fellow that congressmen like least. This dark, youngish man, with his nervous, intense manner, obviously suffers from idealism almost in the way that so many of the congressmen's favorite lobbyists suffer from gas on the stomach. He is an intellectual, a brilliant scientist, a bit of a Bohemian, as his excessively ostentatious sideburns are plainly intended to suggest. And just to complete this lamentable picture of high-brow nonconformity, his generous impulses are left utterly uncontrolled by his total political naivete.

It would have been comic, if it had not been tragic, to hear the two Oppenheimers talking about their past and present politics, after their experience before the House committee.

IT WAS NOT until the mid-thirties, when Oppenheimer was already a promising physicist with good work at Johns Hopkins and the great Cavendish laboratory behind him, that he began to notice the woes of the world. In the intervals of working for his doctorate at Caltech (his thesis was called "Beta Rays of Nitrogen Thirteen"), he did the usual Marxist reading course of the period.

The beauties of the simple Marxist system charmed him. Being all-outers by nature, he and his wife, whom he had just married, applied for Communist Party membership. While members, they did all the conventional things, from organizing rallies for the Spanish Loyalists to participating solemnly in party discussion groups. Finally, they drifted out of the party because they did not like its anti-democratic atmosphere.

FROM THE FIRST, they were fringe members, not subjected to serious party discipline. Even today they cannot quite understand why the Communists so disappointed them. They are of those who believe that the good will triumph, that parties will be democratic, and that men will grow virtuous, because one wants them to. The same self-indulgent belief in salvation by faith has now sent them into the Wallace government.

"Good things have just got to happen," according to Mrs. Oppenheimer, "if you believe in them hard enough."

One more detail finishes the portrait of two people who are only guilty of misdirected, perhaps rather self-righteous good intentions. A couple of years ago, when Oppenheimer was confronted, point blank and by surprise, with his former party membership, he was foolish enough to deny it. The denial of course intensified the effects of the subsequent revelation. And now he has been punished as though for a great crime against the state, which he has not committed.

ONE REALIZED how severely he had been punished, from his weary parting explanation:

"I guess I'll go back to Minnesota and make my grades out. I have to give a doctor's examination tomorrow. After that, I don't know, except that I like teaching, and it will be pretty hard to find a post."

Such is the case of Dr. Oppenheimer, who is certainly as silly about politics as he is clever about physics. His life has been needlessly, pointlessly broken in the course of a headline battle, much as peasants used to be accidentally winged during the great eastern European landowners' vast mass slaughters of wild game.

BUT EVEN for a Prince Esterhazy, peasant shooting was not considered a desirable sideline of pheasant shooting. It is time to apply a considerably stricter standard to congressmen. A good place to begin would be to stop the vulgar yet dangerous heresy-hunt which the House Un-American Activities Committee has now launched in the universities.

Wrong Ticket?

The Bear, The Wolf And The Goat

By J. PAUL BONCOUR, Former President of French Assembly

ONE DAY at Geneva... some project or other was being discussed in council about European security. As ever France was all for collective security. As ever England was a little reluctant, unwilling in her grave trustworthiness, to accept undertakings which she was not certain of being able to carry out.

QUESTION OF TIME

Titulesco was at the council worrying it with his never-ending claims for his dear Romania and dazling it with his fiery eloquence. He passed to Austen Chamberlain (half-brother of Neville) a little drawing. It showed a lion, the British lion; a wolf, the German wolf, and a little goat, Romania. Underneath was the caption: "I know the lion will eat the wolf; but will it be before or after the wolf has eaten the goat?"

Let us substitute for the lion the American grizzly of the Rockies whose feats against the trappers as recounted in "Travelers Tales" made me tremble in my childhood. Let us substitute for the German wolf the great Russian wolf of the icy steppes and for the Romanian goat the French goat, today so small in comparison with the two colossal figures. Titulesco's question is almost the same as the one we ask.

WELL AWARE

We are well aware that in case of war, as our Foreign Minister Mr. Schuman has pointed out, the United States with its immense industrial reserve and its military preparations would win. But would it be before or after we have been invaded?

One of our papers claimed not long ago that Mr. Schuman, said that if western Europe, and therefore France, were invaded it would take 15 years to liberate her. That is a long time. But if one says even several years, it is certainly near the truth.

Several years of foreign domination! A shiver runs up the spine of those who live in countries which have already suffered it; a shiver which our American friends should understand, quickens the enthusiasm we feel for the Atlantic Pact.

If the declarations we hear from Generals Bradley and Clay are reassuring, the rumors we hear about certain tendencies in Congress make us anxious. Is it possible that the American representatives who almost unanimously voted for the pact, will withhold from western Europe, the means of applying it? Is it possible that western Europe is to wait before it receives the help necessary to rearm herself so she could, if ever necessary, hold out until American aid could arrive?

DIRECT CONTRADICTION

Would not that be in direct contradiction to the perfectly legitimate desire of the Americans to know, before giving any aid, if western Europe is resolved to defend herself if Marshall Plan supplies and arms are furnished, etc. . . . will be used in the common interests of those who are aided and those who give aid.

We do indeed hope that every member of Congress will wholeheartedly adopt the views of President Truman.

President Truman has used forceful and serious words. He has expressed American determination to maintain peace, whatever the price. But despite the atomic bomb, I agree with the American military chiefs who believe that even the destruction of vital centres will not stop an adversary who is already on one bank of the Elbe and not far from the Rhine. These lines must be defended in the air and on the ground.

During the first weeks of a war—which we pray will never come—Mr. Schuman has said rightly that the first defence must be assured by European armies actually on the spot or close at hand.

How can these armies be built up without material? And from where can this material be obtained except from America? Several years from now, even if Europe makes the very best possible use of the Marshall Plan credits and goods, her equipment will still be inadequate.

The American representatives must understand that it would be contradictory to ask Europe to defend herself if they are not willing to give her the means of so doing. Such a demand can only provide the destructive forces in Europe with powerful propaganda arms against those who struggle to keep Europe free and democratic.

FULL MEANING

Let us hope then that Congress will realize—and realize quickly—the full meaning of President Truman's declaration: "Whether we will or no, we are responsible for the well-being of the world. Two world wars have forced us to occupy the position for which we were destined in 1919."

Only when Congress gives full enforcement and active implementation to a program of military aid will the French goat feel sure that it will not be eaten before the bear has eaten the wolf.

Not The Right Answer

By R. J. DEACHMAN

this proposal:

1. Would freight rates be reduced?
2. Would there be more efficient service?
3. Would national ownership of the C.P.R. prove profitable for the nation or for the people of Canada.

The first is a broad issue. It cannot be solved without reducing costs or increasing traffic. We have a world torn by war. The whole economy is distorted. The world is still overshadowed by the fear of war. How can we, in reason, expect lower freight rates under present conditions?

STERN PROBLEM

The second question presents a stern problem. New types of trains are on the way, old equipment will soon be outmoded. We have excellent railway services, so as far as present conditions go, a change for the better is impossible while railway operating costs are prohibitive.

The answer to the third question is very simple. How does Mr. Caidwell propose to solve the problem? Simply by changing the directorate. The problem now facing railway management is one of costs and traffic volume. The solution lies in greater volume or rate increases.

TAXPAYERS PAY

There is Mr. Caidwell's problem. Costs are rising faster than earnings. His answer is to take over the railways and raise wage rates. Then the taxpayer will foot the bill.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

MOSCOW'S Communist Party organ, Pravda, reaches the general conclusion that the Big Four Foreign Ministers' conference in Paris has aided in "easing" the international atmosphere.

We may accept that guarded appraisal as correct, although we reach the conclusion by a different route than Pravda. Moreover, this easing would seem to have been achieved more because of what the conference proceedings imply than what they carry out.

The atmosphere of the conference was that of a truce making a forced halt to the great offensive which the Russians have waged since the end of the war to extend Communist domination toward the English Channel. The counter drives by the western democracies (the Marshall Plan, the Atlantic Pact, aid to Greece and Turkey, and so on) have been effective. The dangers of another global war have receded.

NOT THE FINISH

So the world does breathe more easily. At the same time it knows—or certainly should know—that this isn't the finish of the conflict of the isms. That will continue, perhaps long after our time. But as far as the western world is concerned, the Red drive is likely for the immediate future to be confined largely to fifth-column activities which are aimed at crippling non-Communist countries economically to spread the Red 'bin. Meanwhile, as Dean Acheson, Secretary of State, told the United States Senate foreign relations committee, Russia intends to hold the gains she has made.

President Truman in his Tuesday statement about the conference found that "genuine progress" was made toward the conclusion of a treaty with Austria. He said the Austrian people "should be commended for their attitude of patient understanding throughout the protracted negotiations."

If and when the Austrian treaty is signed, Austria should become a steady influence in Europe. She wants to be friendly with both the Russian bloc and the West, though she has no leaning toward Communism, since she is highly religious. And religion doesn't mix with Communism.

CALM REPLY

Montreal Star
A distinguished visitor to an insane asylum went to the telephone and found difficulty in getting his connection. Exasperated, he shouted to the operator: "Look here, girl, do you know who I am?"
"No," was the calm reply, "but I know where you are."

BACKHANDS

Winnipeg Free Press
Mr. Drew overlooks the key fact that such difficulties as we have in the United Kingdom market arise from one cause—the British lack of Canadian dollars to pay for the food and goods they are eager to buy. Mr. Drew's policy would not lessen that aid to the difficulties. He is in the position of the merchant who says to his customer who is eager to buy but lacks the money to pay for purchases: "I will solve your troubles by cutting down your sales and therefore your ability to pay for what I want to sell."

CHEAP TRICK

Windsor Star
Recently the federal government increased from $30 to $40 the basic pensions for the aged and the blind to which it will contribute 75 per cent of the cost.

Hon. Jean-Paul Sauve, Quebec Minister of Welfare, has sent the following letter to old age and blind pension recipients:

"It gives me pleasure to inform you that the Union Nationale government has decided to raise from 30 to 40 dollars the maximum pension paid to the old and the blind. A ministerial decree has been signed to this effect by the Hon. Maurice Duplessis."

We believe most Canadians inherently are too honest to approve cheap trickery of this kind, an attempt of one government to take credit from another. Everyone knows that legislation to increase these pensions was submitted to, and quipped through, the Commons by Health and Welfare Minister Paul Martin.

Mayhew Wants To Finish Job; Not Eyeing Senate Appointment

Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew, lashing out at his Progressive Conservative and C.C.F. opponents, told an election rally here Wednesday night the only reason he was seeking re-election was because he had taken on a job which he wanted to finish.

Apparently spiking rumors he would go to the Senate, Mr. Mayhew told a meeting in the Seamen's Institute Hall:

"The interest of this province and this city will be my first consideration. When I take on a job I will stay with it until it is finished or it has finished me. I am not one of those who believes in conducting a campaign of mudslinging," he said. "We have never sold our goods by running down the other fellows. We have enough to say about the Liberal government, its policies and achievements, to convince anyone."

FISHERIES DEVELOPMENT

Mr. Mayhew, who was supported on the platform by Norm Parkins and H. W. Davey, K.C., said he believed there was a great development in store for the Canadian fishing industry. The fact that this development was forthcoming, he said, did not indicate a lack of government attention in the past but rather scientific discoveries in the catching and marketing of fish.

He said the plan, which he had outlined previously, had the approval of the government, the industry and the fishermen.

"I would like to go back to Ottawa and see what can be done for I believe much can be done and without drastic changes either," he said.

Mr. Mayhew also lashed out against his opponents' charges that Ottawa was returning but $25,000,000 of the $200,000,000 it collected in British Columbia each year. He said actually Ottawa collected $187,000,000 in British Columbia and spent in this province no less than $220,000,000, including $25,000,000 payment to the B.C. government for the income taxing rights; $58,500,000 in family allowances; $40,000,000 in federal bond interest; $59,000,000 in various federal works and services; $4,500,000 in unemployment insurance and $30,000,000 last year in the purchase of goods for the United Kingdom and other countries.

He explained also the federal government's policies toward prices and said:

"It was a deliberately planned operation. It has worked successfully from the day it was put into effect until the present."

The plan, as well as permitting Canada to reduce her national debt, also made it possible for the federal government to develop social services and to provide a balance wheel in her financial system.

Convention Told Most Farmers Make Decisions By Instinct

VANCOUVER (CP)—Canada's "slide-rule farmers" listened Wednesday to a declaration that "90 per cent of the farmers never heard of a 'marginal productivity curve' or the 'law of diminishing returns'."

The balloon-pricker was Maj. H. G. L. Strange, research director for the Searle Grain Company, a delegate to the Agriculture Institute of Canada convention.

"Farmers govern their crops by instinct and not by charts full of squiggly lines such as are on the board," the Boer War major said.

Quick with rebuttal was Prof. W. J. Anderson of the University of British Columbia, who had delivered the initial paper on "Economics and Farm Management Research." He hastened to assure the Winnipegger that he was well aware farms generally are managed by instinct.

The Winnipeg delegate said further, there are too many factors—such as soil conditions, unpredictability of animals, and sentiment—to permit managing farms by graphs.

Prof. Anderson said, however, "it is the place of the agricultural engineer to educate the farmer in more efficient management and solve the special economic problems which may confront him."

Other panel discussion among the 350 delegates involved special techniques developed by the Dominion experimental farm scientists.

Sprinkling irrigation as an improvement over the ditch or flood system was outlined by J. C. Wilcox, assistant superintendent of the Summerland, B.C., experimental station.

H. A. Lewis of the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, discussed in another group, new machinery designed to impede soil loss by shallow discing instead of plowing.

Communists Losing Ground In Holland

AMSTERDAM. (AP)—Netherlands Communists have lost almost half their seats on municipal councils throughout the Netherlands, it was disclosed Wednesday night.

Counting of ballots in yesterday's municipal elections gave the Communists 111 seats against 215 in the 1946 elections. The right-wing Liberal Party for freedom and democracy scored the biggest success, taking 156 seats compared with 97 in 1946.

18 First Aid Men Get Lumber Co. Awards

CHEMUNUS — Eighteen holders of industrial first-aid certificates were presented with awards here by the Victoria Lumber Co. Ltd.

They were: John Ulinder, William Hallinan, Walter Richards, John Stewart, G. B. Motherwell, A. Bennett, S. F. Best, R. P. Roy, H. Staffanson, A. J. Roy, C. Thomson, R. J. Duncan, D. R. Craig, J. Houston, H. E. Shorter, R. J. Anderson, J. Sanders and G. V. Wellburn. First-aid classes will be organized by Andrew Bennett next autumn.

Election Officers Told To Aid Press

OTTAWA (CP) — Returning officers and their deputies are urged to do all they can to aid the Canadian Press in promptly collecting accurate returns in the June 27 Dominion election, Jules Castonguay, chief electoral officer, said today.

Special instructions aimed at bringing the Canadian people the fastest possible news of the election results were outlined by Mr. Castonguay.

In each polling station established in the locality of the returning officer's office, the deputy returning officer has been instructed to deliver his ballot box and an accompanying envelope containing a preliminary statement of the poll to the returning officer as soon as possible after closing of the poll.

Every deputy returning officer for outlying polling stations has been instructed to telephone or telegraph the appropriate officer of the result from his poll as soon as the count is completed.

Saanich Lawns Suffer To Give More Water For Homes

Lawns of Saanich homes are going to suffer to allow more water throughout the municipality for domestic use.

Meeting for an emergency session Wednesday night to deal with the current water famine in the municipality, Saanich Council placed a ban on all lawn sprinkling throughout the water area between the hours of 7 in the morning and 10 at night. Residents can water their grass during the night.

Present regulations in regard to watering the remainder of the gardens remain in force.

Restricted sprinkling plan now in force allows residents with odd-number addresses to water on odd-number days, even address number to water in even-number days. Where there are no numbers, residents on the north and west sides street water on even-number days, and on the south and east sides on odd-number days.

Action came as a result of renewed outbursts of complaints of acute water shortage for homes in higher areas of Saanich which left mothers without water to bath their babies in the day time.

H. D. Dawson, municipality engineer, offered a plan of splitting the municipality into four sections and allowing each section to water every four days. This was turned down in favor of the 7 to 10 no-lawn-sprinkling plan.

Warning was made by Reeve E. C. Warren not to reduce sprinkling any more on home vegetable gardens. It would result in a shortage of foodstuffs, he said.

As far as the lawn watering ban was concerned, Councillor Leslie Passmore of Ward Seven had no objection. He humorously remarked that if he watered the lawn the grass would grow and he would have to go to work and cut it.

Word Magic Used To Mesmerize Voters, Charges Strachan

NANAIMO (Special)—Liberals and Progressive Conservatives are indulging in a form of word magic to try to mesmerize the people into thinking that all was well with the world when actually the world was closer to disaster now than it has ever been in living memory, Robert Strachan, C.C.F. candidate, Nanaimo, said here Tuesday night.

Addressing an election rally in the Foresters' Hall, Mr. Strachan said both the old-line parties were using barrages of high-sounding verbiage to hide their own bankruptcy of ideas. Only the policies of the C.C.F. could answer the crying needs of the people today, he said.

The fact that only the C.C.F. was prepared to enter into bilateral agreements should indicate to thinking people that the C.C.F. was aware of the trade problems of today and prepared to take action, he said. He condemned the housing policies of both the Liberals and Conservatives and said that so long as such policies existed the people of Canada would be denied decent housing at reasonable cost or at a reasonable rent.

In New Zealand, Mr. Strachan said, a labor government had been able to supply the people with housing at half the cost of similar housing provided by private profit-making schemes. This was possible because the government there was prepared to accept its responsibility to the people as a C.C.F. government in Canada was prepared to do.

Salt Spring Pupils Get Certificates

GANGES HARBOR—Twelve pupils received graduation certificates at a ceremony in Salt Spring Island Consolidated School here.

They were: Franklin Byron, Alan Cato, Tom Crawford, James Donkersley, Jim Graham, Charles Greenhough, Glen Held, Pat Jameski, Ruby Lacy, Fred May, Gladys Mouat and Bert Pyatt. Mrs. D. K. Crofton made the presentations.

On behalf of the P.T.A., R. M.

Revenue From Oil In Alberta This Year May Be $60,000,000

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

MINNA, Ont. (CP)—The Alberta oil and gas industry has uncovered natural resources worth at least $2,500,000,000, C. O. Nickle of Calgary said today in an address to the Investment Dealers' Association of Canada.

This, he added, despite the fact it has so far completed only a fraction of the ultimate thorough exploration job.

Mr. Nickle, publisher of the Daily Oil Bulletin, described the revolution that has taken place in western oil since the discovery of the Leduc field, 20 miles southwest of Edmonton, Feb. 13, 1947.

In 1946 oil industry spendings in the west were $12,000,000. This year they will likely reach $100,000,000. In 1946 revenue from oil sales (gross value before operating costs, royalties and taxes), was $14,500,000. This year it will probably reach $60,000,000 although production is held down until wider markets can be reached.

When Leduc was discovered only 20 drilling rigs were operating. Now there are some 90. There were only 15 geophysical exploration parties working. Now there are more than 70 parties and dozens of geologists in the field. Eighty companies—Canadian and American—have 4,000 men at work on the plains.

Oil production in 1947 was 7,300,000 barrels. This year it will likely be 19,000,000 to 20,000,000 barrels.

There were before Leduc about 20,000,000 acres of oil rights under exploration reservation in Alberta. Now more than 56,000,000 acres are being actively explored.

Today, said Mr. Nickle, it may be reasonably said that Alberta's proved oil reserves exceed 700,000,000 barrels (including 250,000,000 at Leduc and at Redwater 300,000,000), and that development of field already established and of recent discovery may boost total proved reserves to around 1,000,000,000 barrels.

"How many more millions of billions of barrels will be added by further discoveries is anybody's guess," he said. "Odds favor, however, that present reserves are little more than a drop in the bucket of the ultimate Alberta and prairie provinces oil reserves."

"It now is reasonable to expect that Alberta oil could within a few years make all of Canada self-sufficient in petroleum."

NOTE—The C.C.F. is not included in the above chart because it has never been in power, and therefore has no record. And, because it cannot gain power in the present election, it has no hope of putting any "promises" into effect. Only the Liberals can and will continue and advance social justice.

In 1945 the Tories said "It Can't be Done", and the C.C.F. agreed with them.

But—Liberal policies created 5 million jobs... it HAS been done and will continue under Liberal administration.

Employment tells a story:

1939 - - 3,763,000	1945 - - 4,525,000
1946 - - 4,702,000	1948 - - 5,031,000

(Both the Conservatives and C.C.F. in 1945 agreed on one thing—that mass unemployment was "just around the corner").

As a result of the above record, the Liberal administration has cut the national debt by 1625 million dollars, which has meant a saving of $224.00 for every man, woman and child in Canada.

Every budget since 1945 has announced lower rates of taxation—another result of the above record.

This has resulted in a 32% reduction in personal income tax and means that 750,000 people who formerly paid income tax do not now pay any income tax at all.

The total tax reduction in dollars and cents amounts to $1,292,000,000 since 1945.

You have seen the results of the past four years. Instead of empty "war plants", as after the first world war, new industries are being established and new products produced.

You can keep this record alive and functioning for the benefit of all Canadians by voting for your Liberal candidate.

Host Of Parties Honor Popular July Bride-Elect

June may be the month of brides, but parties, showers and more parties began more than a week ago for popular July bride-elect Miss Bernice Fawcett and will continue practically until her wedding day on the ninth when she will become Mrs. Robert Arnold Irwin.

Miss Lu Ann Armstrong's small dinner party this evening at her home, 404 Linden Avenue, has been arranged for the bride-to-be.

Miss Fawcett and her fiancé were feted Tuesday evening by Miss Pat Bayliss and her mother, Mrs. W. A. Bayliss at their Foul Bay Road home.

For their party the mother and daughter arranged party gifts in a "pot of gold." Bernice received a corsage bouquet of roses, and her mother, Mrs. John Fawcett, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Gilbert Heinekey, also received corsage bouquets. Multicolored roses decorated the Bayliss home, and Mrs. Fawcett and Mrs. Jack Jones presided at the tea table, set with a lace white cloth, pink table flowers and white tapers.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Shive, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knott, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Curtis, Mrs. Jamie Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. W. Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. R. Pitzer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sherry Thorburn, Misses Olive Cameron, Beverley Knott, Clarice Diamond and Mr. Dave Duncan and Mr. Fred Smith.

Mrs. R. Tolson, the former Peggy Lou Parker, and Miss Dorothy Wills held a "shopping bag" shower for the bride-to-be, at Miss Wills' home on Fairfield Road. Miss Fawcett received a corsage bouquet of gardenias and violets. Her mother and Mrs. Heinekey, received roses en corsage. Mrs. R. Shive, who will attend her sister as matron of honor, presided at the tea table. Decorations were carried out in white, the centre-piece, a silhouette of an old fashioned bride and groom, set in white carnations and flanked with white tapers.

Co-hostesses with a kitchen shower for the wedding principal were Miss Joan Richmond and Miss Yvonne Taylor who entertained at the former's home, 1785 Chandler Street. Gifts were placed in a decorated tea wagon. There were corsage bouquets for Bernice and mothers of the affianced couple. An Italian lace cloth covered the tea table, and a silver rose bowl filled with scarlet roses fashioned the centre-piece.

Honoring her future daughter-in-law, Mrs. Heinekey entertained friends at her home on Harbinger Avenue. Corsage bouquets were presented to Miss Fawcett and her mother. The tea table was covered with a lace cloth. The bride-elect received as a gift, twin Chesterfield tables. Those invited were Mesdames Hugh Pattinson, Milburn, Nora Jennings, Ron Shrive, Lil Heinekey, Jean Harris, Gordon Jacobson, Charles Thom, Elliott Totty, Roy McGillivray, William son, Ted Cross, R. Storrs, Phyllis French, George Bean, George Page, Cy Lysing, Dennis Heinekey, and Miss Helen McPherson.

A delightful presentation ceremony was held by members of the Gilbert and Sullivan Society, whose gift to Miss Fawcett, an original member of the Victoria Society, was a beautiful framed picture.

Mrs. Marguerite Hodgins is representing the Quota Club of Victoria at the annual Quota Club international convention in Houston, Texas, this week.

The castle at Royal Roads was the scene of a children's dinner party recently, guests of honor being Jamie and Martha Pratt, young daughters of Cmdr. and Mrs. Pratt of H.M.C.S. Naden, who are soon to leave for the east. The children played games, sang and marched to the music of the bagpipes played by Miss Mac Connor. For dinner, they were seated around a long table decorated with peonies and a basket of sweet peas. The hostess, Miss Mabel Elkington, was assisted by Mrs. Babe, Mrs. Ann Linklater, Miss Gerta Richter, Miss Molly Kuzminski, Mrs. DeVooght and Mrs. Charles. Miss Jamie Pratt cut the cake, which was decorated in honor of herself and her sister, Martha. Young guests included Freddie Cooper, Wendy Mylrea, Larry Linklater, Ann Peglar, Barry and Christopher Frewer, Phoebe, Michael and Janet Rayner, and Charles and Julia DeVooght.

Graduate Nurses Attend Helen Turk In Chapel Wedding

The chapel at Royal Jubilee Hospital was chosen for her marriage setting by a graduate nurse, Helen Grace Turk, when she became the bride of Laurence Earl Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnson, Saturday evening.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Turk, Creston, was attended by co-graduates of Royal Jubilee Hospital, Misses Norma Macgregor and from Vancouver, Irene McKee.

For the ceremony performed by Rev. O. L. Jull, the bride donned an ivory satin gown, with yoke of net, sleeves in three-quarter length, and full flared skirt. Her veil cascaded to elbow-length from a beaded coronet, and she wore a gold locket.

In her hands she held a white prayer book topped with a bouquet of gardenias and roses, and showered with satin streamers knotted in rosebuds.

Bridal attendants wore similar frocks in butter yellow sheer and pale blue net. Floral headresses were in matching tones, and yellow roses, gladioli and cornflowers composed the bouquets.

Kenneth Johnson was best man, and ushers were William and Bert Johnson, brothers of the groom.

Garden flowers decorated Seaman's Institute Hall where the newlyweds received guests following the ceremony. Lt.-Cmdr. T. B. Robinson, R.C.N., proposed the toast.

The couple are motoring to Spokane and will return to this city to make their home.

The bride's going-away ensemble included a three-piece green wool suit, accessories in black and grey, and yellow roses en corsage.

Personal Notes

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Turk came from Preston over the week-end for the marriage of their daughters, Miss Helen Grace Turk, to Mrs. Laurence Earl Johnson, Saturday evening.

Mrs. L. D. Shortt, 966 Hampshire Road, entertained recently to honor Mrs. G. G. Edwards, who leaves shortly to make her home in Vancouver. The honor guest was presented with a farewell gift from the assembled guests, Mesdames J. Fawcett, T. Custance, P. Martin, B. Gillie, O. Pedersen, T. Waters, and the hostess. Refreshments were served in the dining-room, where the table was set with tall pink tapers, and a crystal bowl of pink sweet peas.

United States Libraries Claim Four Victoria-Trained Girls

MISS NINA GREIG

The Library of Congress at Washington and libraries at Seattle, Tacoma and Portland have claimed four city girls who received their training at the Victoria Public Library.

The four girls are Marjorie Aldritt, Nora Dryburgh, Nina Greig and Joan Matheson and all expect to take up their new duties July 1. All graduated from the University of British Columbia with Bachelor of Arts degrees.

This past year they attended the School of Library Service at the University of Washington, graduating earlier this month.

Miss Aldritt was one of 15 library school graduates chosen for the United States Library of Congress, where she will receive training for special library work. "It is a great honor to the Victoria Public Library that these girls were trained here, although we regret very much that there are no positions available for them in Canada at the present time," said Miss Margaret Clay, city librarian.

"Unfortunately owing to overcrowded conditions and the impossibility of expansion the Victoria Library has its full quota of professional people," Miss Clay said.

She expressed the hope that with the gradual expansion of library work throughout the Dominion, the four girls might at some future date, return to Canada.

Miss Matheson who will go to the Library Association of Portland, adult department, was with the Victoria Public Library for seven years as student apprentice and later clerical assistant.

Miss Greig who will go to the boys' and girls' department of the Tacoma Public Library, was at Victoria for three years; Miss Aldritt, two years, and Miss Dryburgh, who will go to the boys' and girls' department of the Seattle Public Library, one year.

"It will be a fine experience for them," said Miss Clay as she wished the four good luck, before she left to attend the Canadian Library Association annual meeting in Winnipeg this week.

Garden Party Outing For White Cane Club Members

In the spacious grounds of their home, 1149 Munro Street, overlooking the sea, Cmdr. and Mrs. E. P. Kingscote entertained 65 members and friends of the White Cane Club Wednesday afternoon.

Tea tables dotted the lawns, and guests were escorted through the gardens and down to the beach during the afternoon.

Members of the Esquimalt Community Club assisted with tea arrangements under convener-ship of Mrs. W. Petrie. President Mrs. R. McVie assisted in welcoming guests.

Mrs. Elizabeth Watling, president of the White Cane Club, was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink rosebuds by Cmdr. Kingscote, with best wishes and birthday congratulations.

Mrs. H. Harvey and Mrs. R. Culverwell entertained the guests with fortune telling, and members of the Home Towners presented musical selections.

A special guest, Michael Francis, delighted his audience with humorous stories and anecdotes. Special thanks were given to C. Beadnell of Esquimalt, who supplied transportation for Norman Lidster of Mount St. Mary's, and to St. John Ambulance members in attendance.

Clubwomen's News

Youth Band—The Women's Auxiliary to the Greater Victoria Youth Band met recently at the home of Mrs. P. Shrimpton. In annual meeting, Mrs. John Leaver was re-elected president and Mrs. J. Barry, secretary. Meetings will be resumed on Sept. 12.

Seattle Trip—Plans were completed for the annual trip to Seattle at a meeting of Princess Patricia Lodge, No. 238, with Mrs. N. Cownden presiding. The trip, including a visit to Alexandra Lodge No. 172 will take place on July 13 and members intending to go must contact Mrs. M. Raines, G 8220. Following the meeting a sale of work was held, convened by Mrs. Raines and Mrs. M. Rutherford, assisted by Mrs. S. Wetherell and Mrs. J. Miller, home cooking; Mrs. E. Richardson and Mrs. E. Bowles, strawberry tea; Mrs. J. Mason and Mrs. E. Sladden, contests. Next meeting will be held on July 1.

Well-Known Saanichton Couple On Up-Island Wedding Trip

The Anglican Church, Sidney, was the scene of the marriage June 10, of Joyce Caroline Shillitto and John Harimon Talbot.

Miss Shillitto is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Shillitto, Third Street, Sidney, and Mr. Talbot, the son of Cecil John Talbot, Brentwood.

The couple, well-known on the Saanich Peninsula, are motoring up-island and on return will make their home at Brentwood. Rev. R. Melville performed the ceremony.

Lustrous white satin fashioned the bridal gown with sweetheart neckline in raised embroidery. The skirt was gathered to back fullness and cascaded into a slight train. The wedding veil was held with a coronet of orange blossoms, and red rosebuds and white carnation were carried by the bride, given in marriage by her father.

Miss Nancy Doreen Shillitto, her sister's only attendant, chose a shell pink gown of corded tulle, with a tulle-trimmed doll's hat in matching material. Her bouquet held pink carnations, sweet peas and blue iris.

The groom was attended by his brother, Edward Talbot, and ushers were William Ben, David Duncan and Gerald Littlewood.

A reception followed in the K. of P. Hall, Sidney, where the couple stood beneath a rose arbor to receive their 200 guests. Stan Watling proposed the toast.

For traveling, Mrs. Talbot wore a dusky rose gabardine suit, with orchid corsage bouquet and navy accessories.

For Cancer Fund—Proceeds of a successful bridge tea, sponsored by Post No. 5, Canadian Daughters' League, in the Douglas Room at the Hudson's Bay Company, will be given to the league's national cancer research fund. Convener Mrs. Gladys Jasper and the league president, Mrs. R. H. Milburn, welcomed guests and tea was served by Mesdames M. Taylor, C. Kinney and G. Blouey. Bridge winners were Mrs. Hugh Pattinson, Mrs. V. Milburn.

French Class Pupils In Closing Recital

An interesting afternoon was spent at the home of Madame N. Ritchie, 40 Government Street, when she received parents and friends of members of her French classes, recently.

The occasion was the close of the year's work of conversation, recitations and songs which the youngsters offered, showing their knowledge of the language.

The little ones, the youngest member aged four, named objects, counted and sang fluently while the older ones sang, recited and acted a short play with good diction and considerable enjoyment.

Madame Sanderson Mongin congratulated the pupils on their work, the parents who understood how necessary it is to begin languages early, and the teacher who has accomplished so much.

Afternoon tea was served. Pupils taking part were Lois Robinson, Michelle Robert, Vivien Sanguinetti, Francis Wainwright, Colin Creighton, Hugh Creighton, Michael Sanguinetti, Carol Robinson, Margaret Nelson, Cherie King and Pamela Robert.

Scholarship Winner Named; Two New Chapters Planned

Mrs. W. R. Hobbs, educational secretary, reported at a meeting of Victoria Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., that John G. Moffat is the 1948-49 winner of the Victoria Municipal Empire scholarship. He is the son of a veteran of World War One.

Mrs. J. L. Ford presided and Mrs. G. B. Elliott, deputy organizing secretary, reported receiving a resolution from Gonzales chapter, asking permission to form a junior chapter in honor of their founder and honorary regent, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, and to be called the "Harriet Susan Sampson" chapter. Authority was also given to form a new primary chapter the name proposed "Golden Jubilee."

Mrs. J. C. F. Blowey, reported sending two cartons of clothing valued at $227.50 to Provincial chapter.

Mrs. F. Ritchie, Canadianization and immigration convener, will attend the "I Am a Canadian" ceremony to be held at Beacon Hill Park on Sunday, accompanied by the Municipal standard-bearer, Mrs. G. P. Clarke, and the primary standards.

Reports were given by Mrs. R. H. Spilsbury, Empire study; Miss C. MacNab, endowment fund; Mrs. F. Ritchie, Canadianization and immigration; Mrs. Whittier, work in India, and Mrs. Van Norman, films.

There will be no further meetings until September.

Hospital Alumnae Re-elects Head

Mrs. R. Ditchburn was unanimously re-elected president of the Alumnae of St. Joseph's School of Nursing at the annual meeting held in the auditorium of the nurses' residence with more than 100 members present. Other officers are Mrs. I. Moore, first vice-president; Mrs. M. Maltman, second vice-president; Miss E. Sommerville, recording secretary; Miss F. Spencer, corresponding secretary; Miss J. Major, treasurer; Miss H. Cruickshank, statistics chairman; Miss C. Harrington, press; Miss G. Sanders, program; Mesdames M. Kersey, J. Hutchinson, H. Corbett and G. Rose, councillors; Mrs. A. Searle, refreshments; Mesdames R. Meadows, E. Kercher, A. Stonier and J. Shelley, refreshment committee; Mesdames E. Gandy, G. McKenzie and I. Moore, Mary Thompson Memorial Fund.

Sister Rose Mary was named honorary president and Sister Mary Gregory, honorary vice-president.

Following the meeting members were guests of the Sisters of St. Ann.

Presentation To Retiring Teacher

Miss Constance Wright received a silver rose bowl from Mrs. F. B. Nicholson, left, president, Doncaster P.T.A., at a tea given by the P.T.A. in her honor yesterday afternoon at the school. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. S. Hawkins and Mrs. W. Morry. Convener of arrangements was Mrs. Slocumb. Miss Wright, who is retiring at the end of June, commenced teaching in British Columbia in 1912. She came to Victoria in 1922 and has taught in Craigflower, West Saanich, Lake Hill, Gordon Head and Tillamook schools. At present she is vice-principal at Doncaster Heights School.

Nursing Home Garden Party Realizes $400 For Building

More than 400 people visited the grounds of Victoria Nursing Home, Gorge Road, Wednesday afternoon, when St. Andrew's Presbyterian Welfare Association and the Pass-A-Pass Group of First United Church held their garden party. Members of the Lion's Women's Auxiliary assisted. The affair realized the sum of $400.

Special guests were Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, who declared the affair open and Mayor and Mrs. P. E. George. Welcoming members and guests were Mrs. W. Gregson, tea convener, and Mrs. M. Christie and Mrs. C. C. W. Warren, co-conveners of entertainment and stalls.

On the spacious lawns, guests were entertained with the tunes of bagpipes, played by Pipe Major R. Gandy, who accompanied Scottish lasses and ladies performing highland and folk dancing on the green, pupils of Adeline Duncan.

Something new in the way of eye-catching stalls was the "Take Your Supper Home With You" stall, convener by Mrs. G. Corneliussen and Mrs. G. Horwood, assisted by Mrs. J. Priestley and Mrs. W. Spouse.

Home cooking stall was convener by Mrs. Richard Ferrie, assisted by Mrs. Helen Morrison; Mrs. Ina Catterall, assisted by Mrs. W. Bromley, was in charge of candy stall, and Mrs. H. Priestley, ice cream.

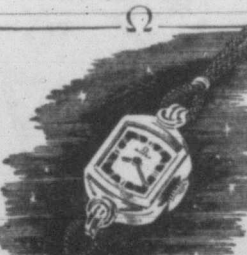

A worthy contribution to the many stalls was that of the hand-worked articles made by patients of the nursing home. Proceeds of the stall, convener by Mrs. M. Thornborrow, as well as that of the entire affair, were donated to the new building project of the home.

Miss Fay Robison, attractive in her period flowered gown with matching bonnet, as the lady with the thousand pockets was assisted by Miss Betty Yardley, in a wine satin gown with matching poke bonnet.

During the afternoon tea was served at little tables centred with pansies and roses, on the upper lawn. Assisting the tea hostess, Mrs. F. W. Hawes, were Mesdames D. McAdams, J. G. Lock, A. Jackman, W. Fulton, J. Munroe, W. Scotney, K. Robertson, W. Donaldson, F. Williams, L. Harrison, Misses R. Cooper, J. Kelly, W. Paxton, H. Wilson, Yeomans and L. Wilson.

Depression Coming; Nothing To Stop It; Caird Tells Meeting

The Liberal government and the Progressive Conservative party, which wishes to form the next government, have failed to take cognizance of a change in Canada's economy, William B. Caird, C.C.F. candidate for Victoria in the forthcoming federal election, charged Wednesday night.

Speaking at a campaign meeting in Woodsworth Hall, Mr. Caird said prosperity which grew out of World War II and which lasted during the war recovery period is nearly at an end in the dominion.

"The government says the country is merely going through a shakedown period, and it is hoping it will not be too severe. But it is more than a shakedown. It is more than just a mere recession. The signs we have seen in recent weeks mark the beginning of a depression."

Canada is finding it difficult to find foreign markets for its goods, and industry is curtailing production as a result, Mr. Caird said.

"That's what happens under the system of so-called free enterprise, which isn't free by the way, because it is a system of monopoly by 'big business,' the speaker declared.

"It's an unfortunate state of affairs," he continued, "but the old line parties have no realization of the circumstances. They are coming into contact with economic forces which they cannot hope to cope with."

UNEMPLOYMENT

Mr. Caird prophesied that if the government continues its present line of economy, the country will enter a period of widespread unemployment.

Already in B.C., he said, there are considerably more than 32,000 unemployed.

If the C.C.F. is elected to form a government, the speaker went on, it will immediately set up a planning commission in Ottawa to look after the economic affairs of the country and will create an investment board which will make jobs for those out of work.

"Unemployment will be practically eliminated," he declared.

Speaking in support of Mr. Caird was Alex MacDonald, defeated C.C.F. candidate in the recent provincial election in the ridings of Vancouver Burrard.

FORCE COALITION

Referring to the provincial political contest, Mr. MacDonald declared: "We of the C.C.F. don't mind when we find a coalition against us. We have always said there were no real differences between Liberals and Conservatives. I am looking forward to the day when we can send enough men like Bill Caird to force them to coalesce in the federal field."

He said it was unhealthy for the public life of Canada to have the two old line parties fight together in a provincial election as they did in B.C., and then pretend to fight against one another in a federal contest.

"You can't be one thing one day and something else the next," Mr. MacDonald said. "But that's what the Liberals and Conservatives are trying to be. They don't mean what they say and they don't say what they mean."

"The C.C.F. is the only party with a forthright, honest and frank policy," he declared. "And the only party willing to give Canada a true democracy."

U.S. Shipping Told To Avoid Shanghai

NEW YORK (AP)—A survey Wednesday showed that Shanghai already is out of bounds to most U.S. shipping.

The American President Lines has ordered its agents to stop booking passengers to and from Shanghai until further notice.

The United States Lines have told their freighters to skip Shanghai for the present.

The United States Maritime Commission also warned shippers of the dangers in Shanghai where a Nationalist bomber Wednesday dropped a bomb near a British freighter which was damaged and grounded in a raid Tuesday.

Wednesday's raid was the third air attack in as many days.

Fire Damages Met. Opera House

NEW YORK (AP)—A $10,000 fire Wednesday night filled the six-story Metropolitan Opera House with smoke as it ate its way through a third-tier partition. Firemen, estimating the damage, did not list the cause of the blaze, which was quickly snuffed.

Luck, Kidding Go Together, Winner Of Car Discovers

Taking a lot of good-natured kidding from fellow-workers these days is Walter Rabey, a longshoreman who won a 1949 car last week-end.

Standing around the dock at Ogden Point waiting for a freighter to dock, he said it was "nice" to have won the car—but wondered if it was worth it when taking stock of the ribs of his colleagues.

"I had been figuring for 10 years how to manage to buy a car—and then I find I was wasting my time—it was given to me," quipped the longshoreman.

When it was learned the ship he was to work on for the day would be a little late, one of the other men on the dock, tongue-in-cheek, suggested to Mr. Rabey there would be time for him to do a circuit of a city block before starting work.

The owner of the new car just figured the bright key of his newly-acquired vehicle and grinned.

Apparently he is resigned to the fact there is a sort of "punishment" that goes along with a stroke of luck.

Construction Of Govt. Building Expected To Require 18 Months

Works Minister E. C. Carson said this afternoon that construction of the new provincial government office building here would start immediately and the building, expected to solve the government's housing shortage in Victoria, should be completed by the end of 1950.

Contracts totaling $1,362,811 were awarded by the government Tuesday for the construction of the building. Yet to be awarded is the electrical contract for which tenders are expected to be called shortly.

The general contract went to Dawson and Hall Ltd., for $1,028,905. W. R. Menzies, Victoria, won both the heating, ventilating and refrigeration contract, at $49,667, and the piping and ancillary controls for steam boilers, at $62,789. The Vancouver Iron Works was awarded the contract to supply four boilers at a price of $221,310.

The new building, which will be located across Government Street from the Parliament Buildings on a lot bounded on the north by Elliot and the south by Superior Streets, will have a full basement and four stories above the ground. It will be U-shaped, extending 313 feet along Government with the two wings going back 162 feet.

CENTRAL HEATING

As well as supplying heat for the new building, the boilers will heat the main Parliament Buildings. The plant will be located in the centre of the new buildings.

The present heating plant will be dismantled and the building cut to ground level. The below surface part of the building will be used for water storage.

Mr. Carson said conceivably the new building could be completed within a year. He reported that the contractors should experience no shortage of supplies. Both steel and concrete which will be needed in big quantities for the building now are in good supply, he said.

The government has not yet decided entirely what departments and services will be housed in the new building. Mr. Carson said that before the building is occupied a complete survey of the various government departments and services would be undertaken.

DEPARTMENTAL MOVES

A considerable shuffling of accommodation is expected, with at least one whole department from minister down to office boy, going into the new building. That is the works department much of which now is housed in the Parliament Buildings and nearby other government buildings. Mr. Carson said it was planned to have his department occupy one of the entire floors of the building.

He indicated that the possible growth of government departments and services between now and the completion of the building will have to be taken into consideration in allotting the new accommodation.

It is hoped that with the new building the government may be able to relinquish some of its up-town offices. They are located in 10 or a dozen office buildings.

The new building, the first permanent structure of the provincial government here for years, is expected to solve the acute housing problem which has developed with the expansion of government services during the past decade.

Mr. Carson said that no ceremony was proposed to mark the turning of the sod for the new building but the opening of the building would probably be an occasion for a fitting ceremony.

Likes Vancouver After Breaking Legs

VANCOUVER (CP)—Mrs. Grace Hutt of Montreal—soured on Vancouver earlier this week—has decided she wants to come back, after all.

Monday night, after she and her husband had ended a five-week jaunt through British Columbia and Alaska, Mrs. Hutt slipped on a curb outside her hotel and went to hospital with two broken legs.

But Mayor Charles Thompson heard about Mrs. Hutt's mishap and sent flowers.

Said Mrs. Hutt from her hospital bed amid a great bunch of sweet William and gladioli: "I'll come back and break another leg sometime."

Railways Say Wage Demands Would Cost $74,000,000 A Year

MONTREAL (CP)—The railways today estimated that demands made on them last week by 16 non-operating brotherhoods on behalf of 135,000 workers would cost the companies more than $74,000,000 a year.

The joint statement, issued by N. B. Walton, executive vice-president of the Canadian National Railways, and N. R. Crump, Canadian Pacific Railway vice-president, said the demands "are being studied."

Fifteen international brotherhoods representing about 100,000 workers asked for a general increase of seven cents an hour effective July 17, and a 40-hour week, as against the present 48-hour week, effective Sept. 1, with the same take-home pay.

ASK CHECK-OFF

The Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees (C.C.R.E.) made similar demands for the 40-hour week on behalf of its 35,000 members, but specified no effective date. The C.C.R.E. also requested a general increase of 10 cents an hour effective July 16, and check-off of union dues from wages of all employees covered by the collective agreement.

"Last year," said the railway statement, "all railway employees received a general wage increase of 17 cents an hour, which meant in effect monthly increases amounting to $35.36 and upwards, for the individual employee. This increase is costing the railways over $71,000,000 a year.

"The estimated cost to the railways of the new wage increases demanded by these groups alone would be more than $22,000,000 annually, and to establish a 40-hour week without reduction in present weekly pay would mean a further annual expense to the railways for these same groups of more than $32,000,000 or a total of over $74,000,000."

Know Your LIBERAL LEADERS

THE HONORABLE BROOKE CLAXTON

The Honorable Brooke Claxton, Minister of National Defence, has a real knowledge of national and international issues. No man better realizes that what happens in the world outside Canada can affect Canada and the lives of its citizens. He is a man who fully comprehends and understands modern economic and social forces.

A Montrealer, a lawyer by training and an intellectual, the Honorable Brooke Claxton has contributed articles to many North American and British Publications. In collaboration with Senator L. M. Gouin, he drafted the valuable "Special Study on the Canadian Constitution" for the Rowell-Sirois Commission.

A true scholar, he is a man with a fighting heart, a heart that won him the D.C.M. in World War One. His favorite sports comprise tennis, squash, badminton, golf and skiing.

He has played important roles in numbers of world organizations, and has attended various world conferences. Before he was chosen to fill the post of Minister of National Defence in 1946, he was Canada's representative at the first and second sessions of UNRRA. As Minister of National Defence, he maintains that "Our first line of defence must be to work with other nations to prevent war."

Tax Relief Needed By Canadians, Says Gen. G. R. Pearkes

COBBLE HILL (Special)—The present Liberal government is leaving Canadians too little of their own money to save or spend in their own way, Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, Progressive Conservative candidate in Nanaimo, told meetings here and at Cowichan Station Wednesday night.

"Exemptions must be increased and tax relief given to people of small incomes," he said. "Tax relief must also be given to small businesses so that they can grow and keep competition alive, keep our free system revitalized and maintain employment."

At the same time Gen. Pearkes warned that if economic freedom is lost, political freedom will be lost also.

"Economic freedom is the essence of the competitive enterprise which is the foundation of our democratic system," he said, adding that history had proven competitive enterprise provided the greatest production and therefore the greatest social security.

Communism, said Gen. Pearkes, was the rule of a godless dictatorship and the negation of everything democracies believed in and sought to maintain. The Conservative Party would vigorously enforce laws to combat Communist activities, he said.

Mrs. Margaret Harvey, speaking in support of Gen. Pearkes, said more and more women were becoming interested in parliamentary proceedings because every decision made affected the home.

"The Conservative Party," she said, "has an unbeatable social service program. The first job it intends to do when returned to office is to grant old age pensions without the means test—this abuse has been carried on too long."

Sing Sing Prisoner Risks His Life In Medical Experiments

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP)—By gambling with his life, a Sing Sing prisoner has helped write medical history.

Even today doctors are waiting to see if he will live or die as a result of the latest experiment for which he volunteered. The dramatic roll which 49-year-old Louis Boy has played in major medical tests was given in detail for the first time Wednesday.

Some of his deeds had been told previously, but he had remained anonymous. Authorities had not disclosed that the same man had figured in several tests—any of which might have killed him.

Boy is serving a life term for his part in the 1931 murder in New York of a garage cashier. He was convicted with two other men. They were sentenced to electrocution, but Boy's sentence was commuted in 1932 by Franklin D. Roosevelt, then governor. In 1942, the government was testing atabrine as a weapon against malaria. To determine if the drug was poisoning, Boy volunteered to take it. It didn't hurt him. Later, millions of service men in the war used the drug to stave off malaria.

In 1943, a "guinea pig" was needed on which to test a new influenza vaccine. Boy again volunteered and escaped possible death.

Several weeks ago in an attempt by doctors to save the life of a small girl dying of leukemia, Boy submitted to a blood exchange during which he took a quantity of the child's infected blood into his own body.

The girl later died. Doctors say Boy seems all right, but it may be months before they know if he will survive.

Former Victorian Dies In Washington

Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Harvey deCarteret passed away at her home in Summer, Wash., on June 5.

Mrs. deCarteret spent her girlhood in Victoria, and, as Miss Anna "Buddy" McKinnon, was well known here as an outstanding athlete. She was a member of First United Church in this city.

She leaves her husband, two sons, Dick and Sandy, and two daughters, Ann and Arden, all at the Summer home; also two brothers, Archie McKinnon of this city and Dr. Angus McKinnon, Oakland, Calif.

A's Display Fight In 12-Inning Win

There's an old baseball saying "you've got to attend them all to see the good ones." It certainly held true last night as 535 fans watched Victoria Athletics battle Wenatchee through 12 thrill-packed innings to edge the Chiefs 4 to 3 to close out their W.I.L. series. Tonight the A's open a four-game stand against Spokane Indians with Jimmy Propst slated to receive the starting call for the local club.

The smallest crowd of the season saw the best pitched game to date and in addition was treated to several brilliant fielding plays. The game had its real tense moments and the Athletics received a real hand in the winning run crossed the plate.

For Victoria, curve-balling Larry Ward came up with his best mound trick of the campaign, although he wasn't around at the finish and didn't receive credit for the win. Giving way for a pinch hitter in the 10th, Ward was relieved by Frank League who picked up the victory. Lou McCollum went the whole way for Wenatchee and was the loser despite a steady performance. Both Ward and McCollum were the victims of some loose play on the part of their teammates, the last-named losing the decision when a boot allowed the A's to push across the tying runs in the bottom of the 10th.

WARNER BRILLIANT

Grabbing the defensive spotlight was Jim Warner, big centre fielder of Wenatchee. Twice Warner saved the Chiefs in tight spots and did his best to prolong the game in the 12th but a beautiful throw went for naught when the catcher dropped the ball at the plate after tagging the runner for what would have been the third out.

Wenatchee moved into a 1 to 0 lead in the first inning when Hal Rhyns lifted the ball out of the park, but the Athletics got that one back in the second inning, with catcher Dick Morgan providing the home run punch.

For the next seven innings the pitchers took complete command, with not a runner spiking the plate. In the seventh and eighth innings Ward showed the fans some great clutch pitching as shortstop Russ Walseth put him in jams.

An error by second sacker Gil McDougald touched off Wenatchee's two-run spree in the top of the 10th. Neil Bryant, Dick Faber and Leroy Winter followed with singles to push the runners across. Not to be denied, the A's tied it up in their half. With one away, pinch hitter Bob Day singled. Al Drew lined a smash to left and when it went through Faber, Day scored and Drew wound up on third. Charlie Balassi walked and Vic Buccola followed with a ground single through the centre to tie it up. McDougald was purposely walked to load the bases. Frank Maffei lotted to Warner, who made a perfect throw to put down Balassi for a double play.

WINNING RALLY

Wenatchee could do nothing with League's offerings in the 11th and 12th. With two away in the last of the 12th, Buccola doubled to left centre. McDougald drew his second intentional pass. Match followed with a terrific line smash to centre and Buccola streaked for the plate.

Warner's great throw was in time, but Winter failed to hold the ball after making the tag, and the game was over.

Vancouver's catcher-manager Bill Bremner crashed three home runs to lead the Capitanos to a 13 to 11 homer-studded win over the visiting Spokane Indians. The two clubs blasted a total of seven roundtrippers. The Caps belted 18 hits off four Spokane pitchers.

MARSHALL BEATS LEADERS

Bremerton's John Marshall shakkled the league-leading Yakima Bears with a 4 to 3 four-hitter to post his 14th win of the season, but he almost dealt himself out of the victory by his wildness.

The Tacoma Tigers slapped a 4 to 1 defeat on the Salem Senators as pitchers Walden and Ken Clary hooked up to hold the visitors to six hits.

DiMaggio Competes In Hitting Contest

NEW YORK (AP)—Joe DiMaggio, out with a heel injury all this season, will compete for the New York Yankees in a home-hitting contest with a New York Giants Monday night, general manager George Weiss said today.

The homer-hitting affair is one feature of an hour-long sports show which will precede the annual meeting of the two teams for the mayor's cup. Gate receipts go to Mayor William O'Dwyer's sandlot baseball fund.

Will Go After Honors At Langford Track

Saturday night's car racing at the Langford Speedway will see "Hard Hat" Gene Fanning return with his No. 4 speedster from Seattle in quest of the purse money. Digger Caldwell of Victoria, seen at the wheel of the car above, will be in his usual position. Standing alongside are, left, Del Fanning and his brother Gene. Time trials will open the program of events at 7.

Eagles Troupe Sailors To Take Third Position

LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W	L	T
Pitts and Nex	7	4	336
Boosters	5	4	336
Eagles	5	6	455
Navy	4	7	394

Unleashing some terrific hitting power and combining it with the effective flinging of veteran Stan Davies, Eagles moved into undisputed possession of third place in the senior amateur baseball loop last night by thumping the Navy, 8 to 1.

Faced with the prospect of having only the exact amount of players to choose from—nine—coach Moe Tudor sent Tony Bishop to the hill and the young southpaw was greeted soundly by the heavy-hitting Eagles, being charged with his second loss in three days.

Davies, who had been hit hard in recent games, scattered eight singles over the route. He lost his shutout in the seventh when singles by Tommy Deakin, Geoff Worrall and a walk to Fred Frewer loaded the bags with one out. Tudor's infield out drove in Deakin but Davies forced Mel Padgett to pop out, ending the potential rally.

Winners opened the scoring in the top of the third on a walk, sacrifice and Rookie Wright's safety. They made it 2 to 0 in the fifth when, with two away, Wright banged out his second single and Joe Shepard followed with a well-tagged line drive to centre, good for four bases.

FOUR-RUN RALLY

A walk, an error and Kit Carson's stinging single to right gave the birds another in the sixth and they closed out the scoring with a four-run outburst in the top of the eighth.

Ken Sturrock with a home run, double and single in five trips topped the hitters while Carson of winners and Jim Wickens of Navy each had two for four.

Short score follows:

Eagles	8	12	1
Navy	1	8	1
Davies and Carson: Bishop, Barwis (9) and Worrall.

Invitational Ball Tourney At Duncan

An invitational baseball tournament with a total prize list of $700 is scheduled for Duncan the week-end of July 2 and 3.

Half of the net proceeds from the tourney which will draw teams from Vancouver, Victoria and Courtenay, as well as Duncan, will go towards the proposed new community centre at Duncan.

Invitations for the two-day event have been accepted by the Victoria Eagles, Vancouver Grandview Chiefs, Courtenay Vancouver Westerns, Haneey and Vancouver Athletic Club.

Duncan Athletics, warming up for the tournament, trimmed Vancouver Westerns 4 to 0 and 7 to 6, in a double-header over the week-end.

Manager Knott Chokes Off Rally As Aces Win

It took 10 innings and a neat bit of relief pitching by manager Rom Knott to turn the trick last night as Brentwood Aces squeezed out a 5 to 4 victory over Chinese Students in a men's Senior A Softball League fixture at Central Park.

Knott, who has been appearing in the odd game for his club this season, and with good results, threw himself into the breach last night when starter John Furmston weakened in the first half of the 10th frame.

Coming in with two on base and nobody out Knott retired the side without further damage and gained credit for the victory when the Aces picked up the winning run on a wild pitch by Jim Chan in the bottom of the extra frame.

Until his exist from the game, Furmston had hurled good ball, allowing the Students only four hits. However, he was constantly in trouble due to wildness, walking nine.

Students took a two-run lead in the first frame but Aces promptly squared matters in their half with a brace of tallies. Quinton Mar tripled home the Students' first inning runs.

FAIL TO HOLD LEAD

In the top of the seventh Students again went in front with a singleton. Aces again tied it up, this time at 3 to 3.

Then in the ninth, Students once more went to the fore pushing across a single tally, but Aces matched the performance forcing the game into extra innings.

Ronnie Benn opened the 10th with a single for the winners. He advanced to second on an error—Students lone miscue of the contest—went to third on a fielders choice and scored on Chan's wild heave when intentionally passing Brian Sluggett.

Chan pitched creditable ball as he allowed eight scattered hits. He struck out nine.

INCREASE LEAD

Royal Canadian Navy consolidated its hold on first place in the Men's Senior B loop by whipping Army and Navy Vets, 9 to 4. Joe Connor, on the hill

Suspend Ball Player For Attacking Fan

DALLAS, Texas (AP)—A Cuban pitcher accused of "climbing up into the stands and knocking hell out of a fan" was suspended indefinitely today from organized baseball.

President J. Walter Morris of the Big State League announced the penalty against Ramon Rogers of the Sherman-Denison club. Morris also fined Rogers $50.

Portland Plans For New Baseball Park

PORTLAND (AP)—Construction will start on a new baseball park for the Portland Beavers as soon as a few technical obstacles are removed. Bill Mulligan, Beaver general manager, said today.

The diamond will be built on the southeast outskirts of the city, where the Beavers have held a site for several years. The present site is in the northwest section, several miles away.

Dutch Harrison Fires Record 66 As U.S. Golfers Blanket Field

ST. GEORGE'S GOLF CLUB, Toronto (CP)—Chubby Dutch Harrison, who looks more like a broker than a golfer, today was in the vanguard of nearly 200 divot artists searching for the title of Canadian Open champion and the glory—and shekels—that go with it.

Big Dutch, a six-foot-four 240-pound giant from Little Rock, Ark., stood the rest of the field on its collective head with a par-shattering 66 in the first round of the 72-hole medal play yesterday. His golf was just as hot as any expert could want it, although a hole-by-hole analysis showed two one-over-par holes in his scorching round.

But these over-par figures were more than over-balanced by eight birdies on a course that has defied a 66-score in its 42-year history. The best previous mark was 67, set by Toronto's Gordie Brydson a couple of years ago, who came in with an uncomfortable 76 Wednesday.

On the whole, it was a tough day for the record field of 186—five more than the previous 181 set in 1936—and most of the grief came in the back nine.

As it was, only 21 players posted figures of par 72 or better. And one, Richard C. Law, a professional from Warren, Ohio, stuck with it through 104 strokes. This triple figure for 18 holes in a Canadian Open probably is a record high in the 45-year history of the event.

Low Canadian so far is Montreal's Bill Kerr with a two-under-par 70, bracketed with Turnesa of Elmford, N.Y. This pair was one stroke behind three Americans—Vic Ghezzi, Deal, N.J.; Herman Keiser, Chicago, and dapper Dick Metz, Virginia Beach, Va.

Defending champion Charlie (Chuck) Congdon, came up with a 73, one over par and two strokes behind bald-headed Bob

Charles Crowned Heavyweight Champion; Walcott Draws Boos

Promoters Gain Small Profit From Heavyweight Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—With a balance of $97,955 to cover promotional expenses, after radio and television cash had been counted, the new International Boxing Club probably came away with a slight profit from last night's Charles-Walcott fight.

The facts and figures:

Attendance—25,392.

Gross gate—$246,546.

Net gate (approx.) $184,910.

Charles' share (approx.) $46,227.50.

Walcott's share (approx.) $46,227.50.

Rent (approx.) $12,000.

Promoters' share and promotional expenses, $80,455.

Radio and television receipts, $35,000.

Charles' share of radio-television, $8,750.

Walcott's share of radio-television, $8,750.

Promoters' share of radio-television, $17,500.

Joe Louis Gives Charles Lesson In Public Relations

CHICAGO (AP)—Ezzard Charles, the new heavyweight boxing champion—N.B.A. model—took a lesson in public relations from Joe Louis.

Louis got his dander up when he elbowed through a cordon of police and glad-handers into Charles' two-by-four dressing room under the rafters of Comiskey Park.

"Why's all the newspaper men on the outside—they've got to talk with the new champ," Louis demanded. "Get the champ cooled off and take him to the bar's room (the White Sox private press pub) and let these fellows ask him questions."

A few scribes had stamped in before Louis made his appearance in the crowded cubicle. Charles had been cornered.

There were constant knocks on the dressing-room door as Arthur Wirtz, a co-partner with Louis in the International Boxing Club, and his friends came to give greetings.

THOUGHT HE WON

Wary, worn and bitterly disappointed, 35-year-old Jersey Joe Walcott asserted he was beaten by a "sneaky puncher."

"I thought I won at least nine rounds," Walcott said with head bowed on his exhausted chest in his dressing-room.

"Charles is not a great fighter," Walcott said. Then he flashed his only anger, snapping: "He's a sneaky puncher. He hit me coming out of the clinches all of the time. When the referee broke us, I stopped punching, but that dirty fighter kept banging away."

Walcott, whose only souvenir of the gruelling bout was a cut over the left side of his mouth, said he would not retire.

"I'll fight Charles again next week, if it could be arranged," Walcott said in a low voice. "I'll go home and rest for a while. Then I'll be ready to fight anybody."

CHICAGO (AP)—Ezzard Charles, who has wanted to be a ring champion ever since he started boxing at the age of 14, realized his burning ambition last night.

After 13 years of slugging, the lithe 27-year-old Cincinnati negro won the N.B.A. version of the world heavyweight title by soundly defeating Jersey Joe Walcott in a 15-round battle.

Charles won the unanimous decision of the three officials; approval of the National Boxing Association; the consent of Joe Louis, retired champion, and the blessing of the newly-formed International Boxing Club, promoters of the bout, which has him on an exclusive three-year contract.

But now he has to convince the New York Athletic Commission, which is on record favoring a tournament among contenders, and Massachusetts, which does not belong to N.B.A. Britain, too, will have a champion of her own Sept. 6, when the British Board of Boxing Control will recognize the winner of the Lee Savold-Bruce Woodcock bout.

Last night's contest was in Comiskey Park, home of the Chicago White Sox, where 12 years ago to the night Louis won the championship by knocking out Jim Braddock. The weather was clear and warm.

Nippy Jones Proves Cards' Ace-In-Hole

Quick now, who's the regular first baseman for St. Louis Cardinals?

The average fan may have to think twice before answering "Vernon (Nippy) Jones," but the 24-year-old sophomore, in his colorless but efficient way, is doing a bang-up job for manager Eddie Dyer.

In nine games he has wrecked enemy pitching for 17 hits in 38 times at bat, boosting his season mark 41 points to a respectable .311.

Jones drove in two runs with a double and triple, and scored once to help the Cards defeat the New York Giants, 11 to 8. The victory moved the Redbirds to within a half-game of the first-place Brooklyn Dodgers, who were defeated by the Reds in Cincinnati, 4 to 3.

The Cards won the hard way, making up an 8 to 1 deficit with three runs in the fourth, two in the sixth and a winning five in the seventh. Jones' triple drove in the final two runs.

Cincinnati had to go 11 innings to defeat the Dodgers. Ewell Blackwell, pitching 2½ innings of relief, received credit for his first victory of the season.

FIRST DEFEAT
Don Newcombe, giant negro right-hander who came up from Montreal this season, went all the way for Brooklyn to be charged with his first loss. He has won four.

A trio of homers by Herman Reich, Hank Sauer and pitcher Dewey Adkins helped the last-place Chicago Cubs outlast the Boston Braves, 9 to 8.

Dino Restelli, rookie Pittsburgh outfielder, celebrated the end of his first week in the majors by blasting two homers to lead the Pirates to a 12 to 3 triumph over Robin Roberts and the Philadelphia Phillies.

The Detroit Tigers regained second place from the Philadelphia Athletics, defeating the Red Sox in Boston, 13 to 4, while the A's were bowing to the Cleveland Indians in a 14-inning thriller, 7 to 3.

The New York Yankees received a tremendous scare from the cellar-dwelling Browns, who whipped them, 5 to 1, in the opener. However, the New

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Johnny Mize, currently a bench-rider with New York Giants, probably will play first base for the National League in the all-star game next month.

Johnny was benched in favor of Joe LaFata because he wasn't hitting in his old style. Nevertheless he forged ahead in the batting when Eddie Waitkus was shot.

Maybe that shows why the pennant races are so close. The veterans are slipping a bit but no newcomers have appeared who are good enough to knock the old-timers off the all-star list.

The batting, in fact, shows only two real standouts—Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson and Detroit's George Kell, until you get down to the outfielders.

There's no doubt that the six guys on top in that department are real pros who belong on anybody's all-star team.

REVERSE ENGLISH

Speaking of all-star games, Bob Feller isn't the only guy who doesn't like to pitch in 'em.

Lefty Covington, a colorful character who pitches for Tampa Snickers, was sounding off recently about the Florida International League's all-star contest the other night.

"I'm too valuable to my team to work my arm off for a gold baseball," Lefty protested. "I can't live on the honor—my grocer still charges me 15 cents a loaf for bread."

Jokers Meet Bays In Lacrosse Clash

Jokers lacrosse players are still smarting over the game they lost last Thursday night to the Tillamooks and will be trying hard tonight at Stevenson Park to get back on the winning van at the expense of the league-leading Foul Bay Club.

Jokers have added strength in the person of Tommy Joyce who is back from university, and his weight and playing ability will make a difference to the defence.

Dick Chungrenes, playing captain of the Bays, may try and get in the game tonight, but his knee injury is still a question mark.

The senior game will get under way at 6.45 and it will be preceded by a tilt between the No. 2 team and No. 3 team of the pee-wee division.

RESTLESS NIGHTS

Often middle-life brings on troublesome irregularities in kidney functioning, an affliction which responds well to magnesium treatment (MAGNAPILLS). Burning sensations, painful twitches are relieved, and the bladder returns to normal. The patient feels an almost immediate change for the better in his whole being.

Magnapills are for sale at all Drug Stores.

Extra-Set Matches Mark Tennis Tourney

Competition is becoming more intense as the later rounds of the club championship are contested at the Victoria Lawn Tennis Club.

Last night's spine-tingler came in the mixed doubles when third seeded Pat Cowan and Jim McArthur ran into the strong combination of Anna Peden and Peter Peacock. Dropping the first set 6-3 and trailing 4-1 in the second the favorites had to face a match point against them before rallying to salvage the set 7-5 and go on to register a 6-2 decision in the fast canto.

Meanwhile, the men's singles semifinal berths will hold up the sold-right-out sign after tonight's match between top seeded Dave Williams and sharp volleying Peter Peacock. Carl Brand, having already established himself in the semis, will face Rex Jackson to decide at least one of the finalists. Jackson put out favored Thorik Juelsberg without the loss of a game in another surprise last night. Bill Dunbar put up a game but losing battle and was unable to prevent smooth stroking Ron Mitchell from copping a berth in the semis 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

Dunbar had more luck in the men's doubles event teamed with Jack Parker. Upset winners of the Williams-Peacock combination earlier in the week, the underdogs continued their winning ways by eliminating Max Winkler and Stubbs 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

In other men's doubles events John Edwards and Juelsberg outlasted Bud Hocking and Doug Henley while Carl Brand and McArthur outlasted Harold Hole and Art Ensor in two deuced sets.

In the women's division Pat Cowan walloped Clare Young, while Bud Edwards eliminated Gwyn Dawson to complete the semifinal round.

Results follow:
R. Mitchell beat W. Dunbar, 6-4, 4-6, 6-1; R. Jackson beat T. Juelsberg, 6-0, 6-0; P. Cowan beat Mrs. C. Young, 6-0, 6-0.

D. Edwards beat Mrs. G. Dawson, 6-3, 7-5.

Brand and McArthur beat Hole and Ensor, 7-5, 11-9; Dunbar and Parker beat Stubbs and Winkler, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Miss Cowan and McArthur beat Miss Peden and Peacock, 3-6, 7-5, 6-2.

M. Ford beat P. Watson, 6-0, 6-1; M. Topalian beat D. Henley, 3-6, 6-2, 6-2.

TONIGHT'S DRAW

5.15—R. Jackson vs. A. C. Brand; Mrs. Edwards vs. A. Peden.

6—D. Williams vs. P. Peacock; Gordon and Jackson vs. Browning and Tooley.

6.45—Mrs. Birley and Juelsberg vs. N. Bergstrom and C. Jones; P. Cowan and Peacock vs. Henley.

7—Mrs. J. Dunbar and N. Bergstrom vs. Mrs. D. Edwards and Miss P. Cowan.

Sacramento Grabs First Division Coast Loop Berth

The Senators from Sacramento have legislated themselves into the first division of the Coast League.

They advanced from fifth place Monday to third yesterday at the expense of Oakland. With the aid of homers by Walt Dropp, Pete Coscarart and Joe Marty the Solons set back the 1948 circuit champions 7 to 3. It was Pete's second four-master in as many nights.

Pinky Woods notched his 11th win in hurling the front-running Hollywood Stars to a 13 to 1 win over San Diego. The loss dropped the Padres to a tie for fourth with Oakland.

Radio manager Jo Jo White and teammates John Hofmann and John McCall were ejected after White protested the calling of balls and strikes. White at first said he would play under protest. But as it turned out all that will come from the ruckus is a report by "the umpires to loop president Clarence Rowland.

Pro Patria Wins Second Straight Junior Boxla Tilt

It looks though senior lacrosse managers who have had to look around quite a bit for talent the past couple of seasons are going to have their problem eased in the future, if last night's junior tilt, in which Pro Patria defeated Selkirk Jokers, 10 to 7, is any indication.

Both teams showed a decided improvement over their initial meeting a week previously. As in the first game, it was a first-quarter lead that carried Pro Patria to their victory.

They set up a 4 to 1 lead in the first quarter, teams notched a goal apiece in the second, and winners got the odd goal in three to hold a 7 to 3 lead at the three-quarter pole.

Two goals by speedy Chick Geisser and one by Rob Day brought the Jokers to within a goal of their opponents, and they kept pressing as Gallop and Lorne Oakley matched markers.

Ken Douglas added the clincher for Pro Patria, and Evan Oakley batted in a shot at the final whistle.

The Oakley brothers, Lorne and Evan, led scorers with a trio of goals each, while Jokers' Geisser scored two and added an assist.

The game proved rough at various stages, with winners getting 12 minutes in penalties and losers eight.

Beavers defeated Palace News, 7 to 2, in a juvenile preliminary. Junior line-ups:

Selkirk Jokers—Henderson, Salmon, Hardy, Seens, Smyth, Day 1, Buzz Hudson, Hoyt, Wells, Stark, Husband 1, Corry 1, Geisser 2, Gallop 2, Bill Hudson. Total 7.

Pro Patria—Carter, Ritchie 1, McLean, Stewart, Stinson 1, L. Oakley 3, Jones, Kowalyk 1, Leonard, Douglas 1, Bamford, Jewell, E. Oakley 3, Merriman, Rolston. Total 10.

SCRANTON, Pa.—Bert Lytleff, 168, Fresno, Calif., outpointed Chubby Wright, 170, Reading, Pa., 10.

Chambers Want New Highway Built Over Old C.N.R. Route

Special To The Times
NANAIMO—Delegates to the annual meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Vancouver Island at their business session Wednesday decided the old C.N.R. right of way would provide the best route for the proposed speed highway between Victoria and Patricia Bay airport. The meeting endorsed a resolution fostered by the Saanich Board of Trade, asking the association to use all possible pressure on provincial and federal governments to use this route in preference to any other. It was argued that the East Saanich Road, which serves as the present highway, passes through many thickly populated areas and through many school zones, making it unwise to develop the road as a speedway. The route formerly used by the C.N.R., on the other hand, is almost straight and passes through sparsely populated country.

ROAD TO UCLUELET

The meeting again endorsed a resolution calling for construction of a road from Sprout Lake to Ucluelet as the westernmost link in the Trans-Canada Highway. Similar resolutions have been passed by the association almost every year. Delegates decided to approach the provincial government to ask that the Department of Public Works consult with local chambers of commerce before it undertakes to re-route public highways in districts where chambers function.

It was decided also that the government should be asked to consider the advisability of establishing ferry service between Crofton and Vesuvius Bay, Salt Spring Island.

FISHING REGULATIONS

A resolution sponsored by the Sidney Chamber of Commerce, asking that commercial fishing not be allowed in Satellite Channel, between Sidney and Deep Cove, until Oct. 25, was carried.

The Sidney group claimed present regulations tend to deplete the annual coho and chum salmon runs.

The association rejected a resolution calling for the provincial government to assume full cost of education.

The meeting went on record as protesting against municipal council's powers to refuse trade licenses; as approving the powers vested in the public-utilities commission, and as being in favor of legalizing sweepstakes and raffles for charitable purposes.

A fractured leg was sustained by Gerald Bateman, 4, of 3336 Oak Street, when he ran into the rear fender of a car driven on North Douglas Street Wednesday afternoon. Saanich police reported. The lad was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital by police, who said the car was driven by James S. Bridal, 1355 Vining Street.

'I Am A Canadian' Day Ceremony At Beacon Hill Sunday

The third annual "I am a Canadian" Day ceremony will be held at 2.30 next Sunday afternoon in Beacon Hill Park. It has been organized by the Local Council of Women and sponsored jointly by the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs, the Sons of Canada and the Canadian Daughters' League.

The object of the ceremony is to bring to the attention of Victorians, particularly young people, the privileges and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship.

Mayor Percy George will act as chairman and the speaker will be Forrest L. Shaw, O.B.E., president of the Men's Canadian Club, followed by a pageant of many of the racial groups, of which the Canadian nation is composed. The City Band, under the direction of H. L. Bigsby, will be in attendance.

Many organizations in the city are sending representatives and the general public will be welcomed. The park band concert will follow the ceremony. Similar ceremonies are planned at this time for Vancouver, Winnipeg and other centres, under the direction of the Canadian Daughters' League.

Consider Buying 2,500-Gallon Truck For Rural Fires

Saanich Council meeting Wednesday night, ordered one improvement done to the 250-gallon tank truck, but withheld action on the question of buying a $9,000 tank truck capable of carrying 2,500 gallons of water for rural fire fighting.

Authority was given to spend $407 in alterations to the 250-gallon tank truck. This will involve building in a power take-off to pump water from the tank through the hose. The Austin pump at present used for that purpose will be unhooked and used to pump water to the tank. The old Woxaj pump at present used for outside pumping will be taken out of service.

In regard to the 2,500-gallon truck Fire Chief Joseph Law said it would take two months to deliver it. Reeve E. C. Warren told the council that if this was bought it would mean postponement for another year to the plan to establish a third firehall on Shelbourne Street. Aside from the fund set aside for the new firehall, he said there was no other money specifically earmarked for a new truck in the estimates.

Council decision will be made later.

The Homeowners will be featured at a dance and floor show to be given Friday night at McMorran's Pavilion under the sponsorship of the Cordova Bay Community Club. Proceeds of the dance will be allocated to the club's building fund for a new community hall.

Beautiful Roses Feature Of Show

Spectators enthused over the beautiful roses grown in Victoria and exhibited at the Victoria Horticultural Society's summer flower show at the Crystal Garden.

The judges Wednesday had a hard time choosing prize-winning roses among the hundreds of blooms on exhibition. The roses were of all sizes and varieties, including new specimens.

A pink-edged "Peace" rose, grown by Tom Harper, 1566 Despard Avenue, was chosen as the most beautiful bloom in the show. The beautiful rose measured eight inches across and attracted the attention of hundreds of spectators.

The flower won for Mr. Harper the Oak Bay municipality's challenge trophy.

First prize in the junior class for the best table display of three distinct types of roses was won by Susan Edgell, 3230 Beach Drive.

Another outstanding attraction were the roses of six varieties entered by Mrs. S. L. McMullen, "Strangewood," Gordon Head. She won the V.H.S. silver challenge vase for this entry as well as prizes in other classes.

W. L. Arnall, 1634 Despard Avenue, won the V.H.S. vegetable trophy for the best display of four distinct kinds of local vegetables. The R. A. Nicholson trophy for the best amateur exhibit was again won by T. H. Harper for a bowl of 15 roses.

Trophy award winners were Mrs. H. J. Readings, American Rose Society gold certificate and Jamieson cup; W. L. Arnall, Victoria Horticultural Society vegetable trophy; T. H. Harper, Eddy's Nurseries challenge cup, Oak Bay municipality challenge trophy, Virtue challenge cup and R. A. Nicholson trophy; Mrs. S. L. McMullen, Victoria Horticultural Society glass challenge vase, Victoria Horticultural silver challenge vase, McCall Brothers' challenge cup and Oak Bay Rose Society's challenge cup.

Prize winners with the number of firsts and seconds follow:
A. McKay 4, 9; Mrs. H. J. Reading, 5, 2; Mrs. W. E. Carey, 3, 4; W. L. Arnall, 5, 1; T. H. Harper, 3, 3; W. E. A. Barclay, 3, 3; Mrs. E. S. Mitchell, 2, 4, 1; Mrs. S. L. McMullen, 4, 1; Mrs. F. G. Flavell, 2, 2; R. S. Bevan, 2, 2; Mrs. R. H. Edgell, 3; Mrs. Henly Lewis, 1, 3; Mrs. M. Gosnell, 1, 3; Mrs. T. J. Sawyer, 2, 1; Mrs. George Nunn, 1, 2; A. H. Richards, 1, 2; B. M. Willoughby, 2; Mrs. B. M. Willoughby, 2; Mrs. R. M. Willoughby, 1, 1; Mrs. S. Beah, 1, 1; G. V. Williams, 1; Lake Hill Women's Institute, 0, 1; Mrs. L. J. MacQueen, 0, 1; D. Nicol, 0, 1; Mrs. J. Kerslake, 0, 1.
In the junior section, Susan Edgell, 2, and Peggy Lou Massey, 0, 1.
A. McKay will receive the Naysmith challenge cup and B. and K. scrip.

It Was Not What It Seemed To Be

City police Wednesday night gave "an assist" in a bank entry. The night janitor at the City Hall called police to report someone was trying to get into the Canadian Bank of Commerce at 1601 Douglas Street.

Police attending to the alarm found Roy Walker, 102 Niagara Street, bank employee, could not get in as the janitor of the bank had left his key inserted on the inside of the lock. The janitor was located and Mr. Walker got in.

Eleven From Island Successfully Write Law Examinations

Eight Victoria candidates, two from Nanaimo and one from Port Alberni are listed among 105 halves of successful candidates in the recent law examinations of the Institute of Chartered Accountants—of British Columbia, results of which were announced today.

In the final examinations, two Victorians, T. K. Fleming and D. A. Young, were successful.

Six Victorians passed in the intermediate examinations. They were: Ronald Bailey, J. N. Bond, F. R. Brien, A. R. Macdonald, M. R. Rushon and John Woolcock. Leslie Bestwick and A. L. Adam, both of Nanaimo, and Robert McDougall, Port Alberni, also passed in the intermediate examinations.

Altogether, a total of 34 candidates were successful in the finals and 71 in the intermediate exams.

Wins Fellowship

A young Alberni man, Charles William Garrard, who graduated this year from the University of B.C. in the field of forestry, has been awarded a $1,000 fellowship of the western branch, Canadian Pulp and Paper Association.

Mr. Garrard is the first to win the fellowship since it was offered in 1943. He will use it to take a post-graduate course at the New York State College of Forestry in Syracuse.

Gyros Donate $200

The Victoria Gyro Club has made a generous donation toward the furnishing and general maintenance of one of the cottages at Fred Landsberg's Sunshine Camp at Sooke. The sum of $200 was sent to the camp. It was announced by club officials today.

Fifty children and 30 adults attended the St. Peter's Mission picnic at Lakehill, the first of its kind held since the mission was moved to its new site south of Reynolds Street, near Quadra. The youngsters participated in a variety of games and sports.

Crown Witness' Testimony Gives Accused Man Alibi

Preliminary hearing of Lyle Adam Maitland, Qualicum Beach, charged on March 12 with forgery, opened today before Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court. Case was remanded to tomorrow after 13 Crown witnesses had been heard.

The Crown allegation is that on that date Maitland signed and cashed a B.C. Department of Public Works cheque made out to J. W. Morris for $107.77 at the Hudson's Bay Co.

One of the Crown witnesses called, Roland T. Brown, 633 Cornwall Street, stated that he and Maitland did not arrive in Victoria until 5.30 in the evening of March 12. He said they had made the trip from Qualicum by bus, taxi and finally by hitchhiking.

James Proudfoot, defence counsel, called only one witness, Leo Evenden, credit manager of the Hudson's Bay Company.

"What time does your store close?" asked Mr. Proudfoot.

"It closes at 5 in the evening," replied witness.

"Could a man get in to cash a cheque at 5.30?" asked counsel.

"No," was the reply.

Mr. Proudfoot told the Magistrate that should he decided to commit, he (counsel) wished to advise that he would call witnesses to prove an alibi covering Maitland's movements on the day in question.

J. W. Morris, 17 Savoy Apartments, said he had a cheque due him for work for the department in February, but that he had not received it.

H. B. McLean, Vancouver, hand-writing expert for 30 years, testified he had compared Maitland's writing and signature with the signature on the cheque and 10 sample signatures of "J. W. Morris" which Maitland wrote voluntarily.

"The similarities are sufficient in number," he said, "for me to conclude the exhibits were written by the same man."

Evidence showed that the cheque was cashed in the store on March 12. The cashier's stamp on the back was dated March 15—or two full business days ahead of the date of cashing, a usual practice.

Provincial police evidence was submitted for Maitland's movements on March 15. It was a voluntary statement written and signed by accused.

Motor Carrier Act Operation Outlined For Commission

Operation of the Motor Carrier Act in British Columbia was outlined for the Royal Commission on Transportation in the Court-house here today by William Brown, superintendent of the motor carrier branch, under the Public Utilities Commission.

Associated with the motor carrier business in B.C. for 15 years, Mr. Brown was a one-time manager of the Motor Carrier Association.

British Columbia suggestions for new departures in trucking and railway operations were before the commission Wednesday afternoon.

From government witnesses, the commission had these proposals:

1. That railway freight rates should be set on a "cost-of-service" basis, which would achieve parity of general rate levels across the Dominion.

2. That interprovincial trucking, which is under individual provincial jurisdiction, should be subject to uniform regulation throughout the country.

The suggestion for general bus regulation came from Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the province's Public Utility Commission, under questioning from Commissioner H. G. Angus. Dr. Carrothers was on the stand to explain factually the operation of B.C.'s provincial trucking control system.

Asked by Dr. Angus if he thought it would be desirable to have a general policy covering all Canada for interprovincial trucking, Dr. Carrothers declared that would be in the best interests of the trucking industry.

The weekly meeting of the Cosmopolitan Business Men's Club will be held this evening at 6.15 at Terry's.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED
BABY SLEEP WITH YOU?
IT CAN BE TROUBLESOME

When parents take the easy road and bring the child into their bed to sleep, they should not be surprised when this habit becomes a fixed one. However, it is well to ask whether it is the one they want to cultivate for the future.

Mrs. J. D. said that when her baby was sick in the winter, she put him to sleep in her bed, to be sure that he stayed covered. "Now it is impossible to get him to sleep in his own bed," she writes, "and even if he is 17 months old, he still wakes for a bottle every night. He gets an adequate amount of food in daytime and I think this is just a habit. Any advice would be greatly appreciated."

There are some children who become addicted to any habit which is attached to sleep. It would seem that your child once established in this way of going to sleep, and long accustomed to night feedings, finds it difficult to adjust himself to different habits.

It is probable that drastic changes of routine and habit would make him more determined and stubborn. Work at it tactfully. Put the baby's crib right next to your bed. Try putting him to bed in it and stand beside him, patting him gently, or just holding his hand.

"If you have to put him to bed in your bed, remove him to his own as soon as he is asleep. With patience and the realization that he is getting big enough now, to sleep by himself, you'll divest the change of any aroma of punishment."

Dilute the night bottle of milk with several ounces of boiled water. Then begin reducing the amount in the bottle by about an ounce a day. If this is habit, then the stomach will cease to demand this weakened, diminished formula and the habit of sleeping through the night should be established. Just accept this as a task to be pursued for a time, not a cure to be expected overnight.

Mrs. R. D. R. "The boy won't throw his food on the floor until he has eaten his fill of it. Stay beside him, even if you allow him to feed himself, and when he slows up and shows no interest in it, remove it yourself before he has a chance to demonstrate his repudiation of it. Prevention of this behavior is better than to try to curb it through punishment. Babies find that exciting, too.

Our leaflet No. 64 "Curing Bad Habits," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Shaw Sells Furniture

LONDON (Reuter)—An auction Tuesday of some of George Bernard Shaw's furniture and possessions realized less than £500 ($2,000). Shaw has sold his London flat because he considers it too large. Some of its contents were sold at the auction.

SHREWD PLAY HERE

I had the pleasure recently of discussing English bridge with Michael D. L. Scott. Before the war Scott operated the Kensington Palace Mansions in London, in which the Kensington Bridge Club with its 1,000 members was located. He is now making his home and working in the U.S.

Only the stubbornness of Scott's partner in today's hand got them into the wrong contract—but fortunately his play brought it home.

Declarer won the opening lead of the five of hearts, with the ace. He did not try to ruff out the hearts, but led a diamond immediately. South won with the ace and returned a heart which was ruffed in dummy. Next West cashed dummy's queen, jack and nine of dia-

Five Members Of Korean Assembly Put Under Arrest

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—Five members of the National Assembly were arrested Wednesday on orders of President Syngman Rhee, who charged them with "endangering the national security of the Korean Republic."

Korean police also arrested a non-official holder political worker and sought a seventh man on the same charge.

All are members of the "Young Progressives," who have been extremely critical of Rhee's policies. They had demanded in a petition to the United Nations' Korean commission that U.S. and Russian military missions be withdrawn from the country.

The petition was drawn up at a time when the administration is attempting to obtain all-out military aid from the United States. This fact was believed to have influenced Rhee's decision to have the progressives arrested.

The Young Progressives feel that Korea will be unified only when foreign military forces withdraw from Korea.

A withdrawal of U.S. troops now is underway. But the military mission here, known as the Korean military advisory group, is expected to be increased in size.

Yule Decorations Startle Citizens

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Passers-by on Penn Square Wednesday stopped, blinked and stared again.

With the thermometer at 95 on the hottest day of the summer to date, workmen were hanging Christmas decorations along King Street. And tonight colored lights will illuminate stars, unsewn wreaths and effigies of Santa Claus.

The unseasonable show stems from dissatisfaction last December with this eastern Pennsylvania city's Yuletide trimmings. So a contest for a new design was held and a winner selected. The test tonight will seek public reaction to the new display.

Judy Holliday In Hollywood Again Acting In Movie

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Judy Holliday is back in town for another try at the movies. She's doing much better this time, thank you.

Judy played the wise-cracking roommate of the junk dealer (Paul Douglas) in "Born Yesterday" on Broadway. She was merely a sensation and eased out of the role after three years and three months.

She now is braving the film industry in "Adam's Rib" with Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn. She was given Mary Astor's dressing room and is generally being treated as a dignitary. "Wasn't always" so with her in Hollywood.

One of the hilarious scenes of "Born Yesterday" was one in which Judy played Gin Rummy, and that's how I found her on the set. She was playing with Jean Hagen, a recent import from Broadway who once was Judy's understudy. They gave up the game while Judy told about her previous experience in films.

She was under contract to 20th-Fox, but nothing happened. Finally, she leaped she had a role in a wartime musical, "Something for the Boys."

Judy was enthused until she learned she had one line. She complained to a studio official.

"It's only one line," "Sure," he answered, "but it's a long line!"

"And," he said, adding the clincher, "the picture's in color!"

The actress complained to her agent. He listened, then replied, "but it's in color!"

So she did the part. When she reported for work, she discovered she was to play a war worker—dressed in overalls, bandanna on her hair and goggles over her eyes.

"What's more, it was a comedy line, so I had to read it fast," she recalls. "That was their idea of a comedy line—read it fast."

After a bit in "Winged Victory," she headed back to Broadway, which acclaimed her talents. She's going back there again, as soon as she finishes "Adam's Rib." She angling a play for the fall.

"I'd never use anything but Swift's Cleanser!"

Mrs. Benton H. Guest,
1958 Arbol Street,
Regina, Saskatchewan

"It cuts grease fast—especially in Regina's hard water—and it takes so little to get results"

"Meet Graydon, our two-year-old. By the time I have him washed up and ready for bed the bathroom really needs cleaning. But it's no chore with Swift's Cleanser. It really cleans fast. Wipes away tub ring in a jiffy and leaves our bathtub and basins gleaming."

"Our cocker-spaniel is one of the family. He's real friendly—and we've never quite cured him of jumping up on the kitchen cabinets. It doesn't really bother me, though. With Swift's Cleanser one wipe cleans off the footprints. What's more, Swift's cleanser doesn't scratch or mar the enamel."

Pick the Polka Dot Package—Choice of 3 Colors

Double your money back guaranteed! Thousands of Canadian women say that Swift's Cleanser is FASTER and SMOOTHER than any cleanser they have ever used. Try Swift's Cleanser, yourself. If you don't agree—just mail the label to Swift Canadian Co. Limited, Toronto 9, along with your reason for not agreeing. Swift's will pay you DOUBLE THE PURCHASE PRICE.

Poupore Urges Liberal Support To Get Things Done In Nanaimo

DUNCAN (Special)—Predicting the return of the St. Laurent Liberal government to power, W. E. Poupore, Liberal candidate in Nanaimo federal riding, urged the electors at a meeting in St. John's Hall here to "get things done for the riding" by electing a Liberal on Monday.

During the war years, Mr. Poupore said, under Liberal guidance and policies, Canada had astonished the world by its production for war. Policies of the same government following the war had raised industrial employment, social services and security to the highest level in the country's history. Canada's voice today was a powerful one in the council of the world's democratic and peace-loving nations, because of Liberal policies, he declared.

The speaker said the recent Coalition victory was a sure indication the people of Canada were swinging away from the lure of socialism with its fantastic promises. He also stated the recent elections in Newfoundland and Nova Scotia showed that Canadians preferred "middle of the road" policies of the Liberal Party to the extreme left doctrines of the Socialists and the extreme reactionary creed of the Progressive Conservatives.

A detailed summary of the progressive legislation sponsored by the Liberal Party was given. Supporting Mr. Poupore on the platform was Mme. I. Burnada, member of the personnel staff of the University of B.C. extension department.

DISAPPOINTMENT FOR DREW

Mme. Burnada also predicted a Liberal victory and saw a swing away from extreme left and extreme right policies of other parties. She declared that George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, was going to be disappointed by results from his alliance with Premier Duplessis and the Union Nationale Party of Quebec. Mr. Drew, she charged, had a policy which was a mass of contradictions of his previous stand on many questions and cited how he opposed the family allowances in 1944, but upheld them today.

Denis Shepherd, Cobble Hill, also spoke in support of the Nanaimo riding candidate and averred that youth of today saw in liberalism the only safe and sure course toward peace abroad and social security at home. Also speaking for young Liberals was George Gregory, Victoria.

During the afternoon the candidate and the supporting speakers attended a garden party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thornton, Cowichan Bay, where they met and addressed many ladies from the district.

Largest Narcotics Case In Canada Heard In Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP)—Shadows of a strange underworld flit through police court here where 10 men are being tried on charges of conspiring to distribute narcotics.

It is the largest case of its kind in Canada's history and was preceded by what R.C.M.P. describe as the most widespread investigation ever undertaken in the narcotics field.

Charged are Dan Gasberini, Steve Bohach, Jake Goldhar, Frank and John Smokler, Irving Hess, Nick Agostino, Benny Ugar, Mike Kushman and Carmen Chioveti.

Evidence so far has been confined to verbatim recitations by R.C.M.P. constables of conversations they allege they procured from the defendants while lying sprawled in adjoining hotel rooms, their ears pressed to the keyhole of a connecting door.

STRANGE SLANG

Those recitations include a strange slang, fantastic secrecy plans, methods of mixing narcotics for eventual distribution and illegal sale as well as education for the uninitiated in the trade.

Three of the 10 accused were arrested in eastern Canada—two in Toronto and one in Hamilton. One was arrested as he stepped from a plane just in from Calgary.

One portion alleged that Bohach was taken in for training in mixing or "capping up" the narcotics.

He was ordered, the narration alleges, to lock himself in his room for a day. There he would mix from each piece of illegal narcotic about 350 "caps"—the portion sold to drug addicts for one injection.

Then he would wash his hands well and send his clothes to the cleaners, the police statement said. To receive his payment of 65 cents for each portion he produced, he would leave Vancouver to meet Kushman, do any talking necessary, and return, it was stated.

A sample of the finished products would be transported to Gasberini in a piece of gum stuck on the bumper of a car, it was said.

Price of one cap to an addict fluctuates with the supply.

Dick Chapman Enters Canadian Amateur

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—The third-ranking United States golf amateur, Dick Chapman, has filed his entry for the Canadian amateur golf tournament opening at the Riverside Golf and Country Club July 25, it was announced today by the committee in charge of the event.

Chapman is ranked behind only Frank Stranahan, Toledo, current Canadian champion, and Willie Turnesa among United States amateurs.

Near Perfection

Pat Hall, 22, Hollywood hopeful, is just about "Miss Almost Everything." She has been singled out as the gal with "the world's most beautiful legs," "Miss Good Posture," "Miss Pin Up" and "Miss Beautiful Feet," to mention a few. But her first two tries at movies were westerns, with the "world's best legs" under calico.

Dutch Harrison Retains Lead In Canadian 'Open'

ST. GEORGE'S GOLF CLUB, TORONTO (CP)—Big Dutch Harrison, who showed the way to the field in yesterday's first round of the Canadian Open golf championship, fired a five-under-par 67 today to retain his lead with half of the field finished after 36 holes.

Harrison went out in 36, one over par, and then made a show of the back stretch with a sensational 31, six under and the best score for the second nine so far in the tournament.

Harrison's score for 36 holes was 133, far under anything turned in with about half of the field finished.

Charles (Chuck) Congdon of Tacoma, Wash., 1948 winner, found the range today with a sub-par 67 and 140 total for 36 holes.

Congdon shot birdies at the sixth, seventh and ninth to finish the first nine in 32, bettered Wednesday only by Vic Ghezzi of Deal, N.J., with a 31.

Harrison ran into trouble on the first nine and took a 36. He went one over on the long par four fourth hole, and at the eighth remonstrated with a radio broadcaster. Harrison was about to putt when the broadcaster began a description of the play.

Harrison glared and then dropped a three-footer for a par three.

At the ninth a spectator all but stumbled over Harrison's ball, three feet off the green, but Dutch finished the hole, the longest on the course at 315 yards, with a par five.

Seek No U.S. Aid In Hongkong Defence

LONDON (Reuters)—Britain is not seeking United States help in the defence of Hongkong, which is a British responsibility, a Foreign Office spokesman said tonight.

He denied any suggestion that Britain had asked for aid from the United States and the United States had refused it.

He added that considerable British reinforcements had been ordered to Hongkong.

Defence of Hongkong and the adjacent Portuguese island colony of Macao, off the South China coast, were believed in usually well-informed quarters in London to have been discussed at the Foreign Office today when the Portuguese ambassador to Britain, the Duke of Palmella, called on Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

Both Britain and Portugal have recently decided to send reinforcements to the area.

Five Injured In Head-on Crash

Morris Griffith (left), 47, and Francis Ballantine (right), 37, lie sprawled on the highway near Oakland, Calif., after a head-on crash between their car and a panel truck. Griffith suffered a fractured left leg and facial cuts, and Ballantine a possible skull fracture, broken collar bone and cuts. Griffith's car blew a tire and swerved into the oncoming truck. A third vehicle struck a trailer behind Griffith's car. Three other persons were hurt. —(NEA Telephoto)

Schroeder Leads U.S. Tennis Stars Into Fourth Round

LONDON (CP)—Ted Schroeder today led the field into the fourth round of men's singles in the Wimbledon tennis championships, scoring an easy 6-3, 6-2, 7-5 victory over Rene Buses, a little-known Swiss player.

Frank Parker, seeded No. 3, kept pace with Schroeder by overwhelming Phil Hanna of New York, star of the musical comedy "Brigadoon," 6-1, 6-0, 6-4.

Geoff Brown of Australia defeated Felicissimo Ampon of the Philippines, 6-4, 6-2, 7-5.

Another seeded player, Australia's John Bromwich, who reached the final last year, was little pressed in beating South Africa's No. 2 player, Eustace Fannin, 6-1, 6-4, 6-1.

The last Briton in the men's singles, C. F. O. Lister, went down in straight sets to Philippe Washer, Belgian Davis Cupper.

Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, United States champion, powered his way to another straight set victory, this time over Marcel Cosen of Egypt, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

The veteran American doubles team of Louise Brough and Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont had little difficulty turning back Mrs. Kay Stammers Menzies and Mrs. W. C. J. Halford of Britain, 6-3, 6-0 in a second-round match.

London Dockers Allege Lockout By Employers

LONDON (CP)—Bill Arland, leader of striking members of the Canadian Seamen's Union, today was called to the office of the Canadian High Commissioner.

The summons to appear before Dana Wilgress came as the C.S.U. threatened to cause a major labor crisis on the London docks. Longshoremen recently tied up West Coast ports when they walked out in sympathy with the C.S.U., conducting a world-wide strike because Canadian shipping companies signed agreements with the rival Seafarers' International Union (A.F.L.).

In announcing the action by the High Commissioner at a meeting of London dockers, a

C.S.U. spokesman said: "We don't know what it means but we are very hopeful."

Tension increased today along the waterfront as gang after gang of stevedores who refused to unload two strike-bound Canadian ships claimed that other work was being withheld from them. This amounted to an employers' lockout, they said.

The situation appeared to parallel the action taken by the Port Employers' Association in West Coast ports. They declined to hire any dockers as long as the Canadian freighter Montreal City was not unloaded. The dockers had refused to work the ship because it was manned by an S.I.U. crew.

The two ships involved in the London dispute are the 7,168-ton Argonaut and the 9,034-ton Beavre. Both have been held since early May with cargoes of timber, grain and flour.

One thousand dockers held a mass meeting this afternoon to decide what action to take as a result of the alleged lockout. They agreed to call another meeting for tomorrow morning so that more workers could attend.

Regina Gets Berries Nearly Fresh Off Vine

REGINA (BUP)—Reginans will be eating strawberries less than 24 hours after they were plucked from the vine in British Columbia.

Two and a half tons of the berries, strapped to airplane seats arrived in the Saskatchewan capital this morning. They were distributed to wholesalers and retailers within a few hours.

The berries were picked in the west coast province yesterday afternoon.

Mission District Scoured

MISSION, B.C. (CP)—An armed posse is beating the bush area northwest of here for an elderly farmer following the fatal shooting of two women, unsuccessful attempts to shoot a police officer, and the burning of buildings on the suspect's farm.

Victims of the shooting are said to be Mrs. Marie Lindbergh, a 60-year-old widow, and Mrs. George Barrett.

Police are seeking Ivor Jonson, who is believed armed with a rifle.

Jonson's farm buildings, including his house, were set ablaze before he fled into the bush.

Municipal Constable Peter Bergen of Mission was fired on twice when he went to investigate the incident, but escaped injury.

Exact details are not yet known. However, it is reported that Mrs. Lindbergh was shot and killed instantly as she walked along the Silverdale Road about 11.30 a.m. Mrs. Barrett is said to have been killed about two hours later.

An alarm broadcast over the provincial police radio system sent officers to the scene from other districts throughout the Fraser Valley to join in the search.

The shootings occurred about two miles from the provincial highway, near the small community of Silverdale, about five miles from Mission.

Liberals Gain New Provincial Seat In Newfoundland

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Liberals gained another provincial seat in Newfoundland today as first returns coming in from White Bay gave the Liberal candidate the seat with a healthy majority over his only opponent.

Samuel Drover, Liberal, had 2,012 votes and F. M. Wells, Progressive Conservative, 164, as first returns were reported from the far northern riding.

This gives Liberals 21 seats in the 28-seat house. Progressive Conservatives won five seats and an Independent one in the May 27 voting. Labrador elects the other member July 25.

Returns were late being reported from White Bay because of bad weather and a provincial election law which makes it necessary for the returning officer to have all boxes in his riding in his hands before starting the count.
